Appendix 5

Villages, Towns and Cities

This appendix attempts to list all the villages, towns, cities and boroughs that have existed in Ontario.

The first line of each entry is in the form:

Name, a, d/e, Hx, Ry

where Name is the name of the community

- a the township(s) the community was in when founded (if too long for this space, the information is on a line below).
- d the original county the community was in
- e the county it was in in 2003 (if different), a “-” indicates that the community no longer exists as a separate political unit.

x is a number indicating where information about a municipal history can be found

0 Morley (see Bibliography for complete reference)

1 Aitken – 1951–1977 (see Bibliography for complete reference)

2 Aitken – 1977–1987

3 Aitken – 1987–1997

4 see the Family History Library Catalogue at <www.familysearch.org>

y is a number indicating where information on the location of records can be found

1 Original or microfilm at the Ontario Archives. See <www.archives.gov.on.ca/english/virtualrr/info22> for more details.

2 Microfilm created by the Genealogical Society of Utah (and so available through the Mormon Family History Centres) and a copy at the Ontario Archives.

3 Microfilm created by the Genealogical Society of Utah (and so available through the Mormon Family History Centres) but no copy at the Ontario Archives.

That first line may be followed by other lines giving the date of significant events.

Like townships, it is difficult to be accurate with dates for many of the same reasons. Names are listed in their proper order so North Toronto is under N and East Toronto is under E. Invariably there are dates that I cannot find but can indicate a range. I have used “<” (before) and “>” (after) for these. “<1901” means this event occurred before 1901. “1906>” means this event occurred after 1906. “1843><1852” means the event occurred between 1843 and 1852. A “c” before a date means circa.

To save space, the names of three counties have been shortened as follows:

LA Lennox and Addington County

PR Prescott and Russell County

Sources

My reliable sources are the same as for townships, and my reservations are similar too. Several of the Library Bulletins from the Ontario Ministry of Treasury Economics and Intergovernmental Affairs provide data. Mika and Carter are good sources for early names. The township locations of communities came from the maps in Smith.

Seeking Records

When looking for a municipality's records, look also for the records of upper tier entity, in this case county or district. Often records have been lumped together and are indexed under the upper tier. This is particularly true of the Ontario Archives and the Family History Library Catalogue, although I have found a similar indexing in smaller archives too. Pre-1850 records are usually in the records of the district, although some communities did have their own records.
