A History of the Parish of Saint Joseph Springfield, Massachusetts

I. Father Joseph-Louis-Guillaume Gagnier – 1873-1908

As the second half of the 19th Century began, the city of Springfield, Massachusetts counted fewer than 30,000 residents. Their properties lined along the east bank of the Connecticut River, where their ancestors, William Pynchon, Rowland Stebbins, and Samuel Chapin had settled three centuries earlier. Horse-drawn streetcars provided the only form of public transportation. The first automobile and the first motorcycle would be invented here, but many years later.

In the next 50 years, the population of Springfield expanded rapidly. Some of the newcomers crossed the Atlantic from Great Britain, Ireland, Italy and elsewhere. But a significant number made a much shorter journey from the Province of Quebec. The first Bishop of the newly founded Roman Catholic Diocese of Springfield looked northward to "La Belle Province" to provide workers for the vineyard of the Lord who spoke the language of the workers in the mills.

Father Magloire Turcotte served the French-Canadian Catholic people of Springfield between October 1869 and July 1870. From April 1871 to April 1872 Fr. Auguste LaVerdiere was their spiritual leader. The founder of the first permanent French parish in Springfield was a 43-year-old missionary born in the town of Ste-Martine-de-Chateauguay, about ten miles north of the Vermont border, who had already earned the title "Builder of Churches." His name was Joseph-Louis-Guillaume Gagnier.

Patrick Thomas O'Reilly became its first Bishop, Father Gagnier left Vermont and came to Massachusetts. After coming to the see city, Father Gagnier established not only St Joseph parish in downtown Springfield, but the missions of St. Aloysius, Indian Orchard, St. Guillaume [later, St. Theresa], Mitteneague, in 1873, as well as St. Louis de France, West Springfield, in 1895.

On March 9, 1873, Fr. Gagnier celebrated Mass for the first gathering of his newly established parish in the auditorium of Springfield City Hall. In April, the parish of St. Joseph, now on firm footing, moved Sunday services to Gilmore Hall on Main Street. In May, land was purchased on Howard Street for the sum of $20,000. The basement of the parish church was completed that summer, with parishioners doing the digging, and Fr. Gagnier working side-by-side with them in the dust and mud of the excavation.

On All Saints' Day, November 1, 1873, the first Mass was celebrated in the basement of St. Joseph Church by this zealous pastor, known for his daily jaunts in the downtown streets. Called "the priest with the beard", he wore a black stovepipe hat and carried a walking stick, but never an umbrella. The pockets of his Prince Albert coat were filled with candy for the children and coins for the wayfarers.

In 1877, "the most beautiful and largest of all of Father Gagnier's churches" was completed. King's Handbook of 1884 described it thus: "The structure is of brick, of simple architecture but extremely imposing. ... Total cost of the property and the present structure are estimated at $60,000. The population of the parish is more than 400 families."

In 1897, the parish was ready to build anew. That fall, Fr. Gagnier commissioned architectural plans for a school building. The three-story stone-trimmed brick edifice was dedicated by Bishop Thomas D. Beaven on May 8, 1898.

In its first quarter-century, the parish of St. Joseph, serving the spiritual needs of the French-speaking population of Springfield, West Springfield, Mitteneague, and Longmeadow, had grown from 1,460 souls to over 3,000. Within the next decade, the school enrollment reached a peak of 408 students.

The highlight of Fr. Gagnier's priestly career was the Golden Jubilee celebration of his ordination on December 5, 1905. It was only in the following year that Fr. Gagnier, who had reached the age of 76, was assigned a curate to assist him in his priestly mission. Before the arrival of Fr. Joseph Misael Bissonnette in 1906, the only help he had sought – or needed – was that of the La Salette Fathers of Hartford, Connecticut, for weekend ministry. In the summer of 1908, he was stricken with malaria, which greatly weakened his body, and made him vulnerable to a stroke, which occurred on August 6 of that year. The beloved pioneer-priest went to his eternal rest on August 20, 1908. He was 78 years of age.

II. Father Joseph M. Bissonnette – 1908-1924

Also a native of Ste-Martine, Father Joseph Misael Bissonnette was ordained in 1898 at Holy Cross Cathedral, by His Excellency J. J. Williams, Archbishop of Boston. He was assigned to St. Joseph in Springfield for two years until he succeeded Fr. Gagnier on August 30, 1908. In 1913, a bronze plaque was installed in the wall of the church vestibule. On it was sculpted an image of the founder, and a brief list of his accomplishments. Major renovations to the parish hall and school were undertaken in 1916.

Looking forward to the Golden Jubilee celebration in 1923, Fr Bissonnette initiated a subscription campaign with a goal of $60,000, for the purpose of eradicating the parish debt. "At about ten after one in the afternoon, just minutes before the beginning of afternoon classes, there was a deafening sound which was heard throughout the school. The entire building was shaken, glass was flying all around, and everyone wondered what could possibly be happening. The billowing smoke and rising flames made it evident that the explosion was the Gas Company tanks. This terrible accident caused millions of dollars of damage throughout the center of the city. At Saint Joseph's School, doors were closed until February 5th in the evening during which time the laborers worked from early morning until late at night to restore order in the school." In July of 1923 work began to strengthen the church structure which had been badly shaken by the explosion. Steel rods were installed, crossing the church from wall to wall. At the same time, the church was partially refurbished.

Although Father Bissonnette's health had always been excellent, his physical condition had begun to deteriorate at this time. When Reverend Arthur J. B. Cayer came to St. Joseph's in June of 1924 as assistant pastor, his presence was welcomed. In spite of his failing health, Fr. Bissonnette went ahead with his plans for the parish. In the annual account for 1924, he wrote: "The year 1924 will long remain in our memory as the opening of the era of major construction. We have, up to now, limited ourselves to eliminating debts and making necessary repairs. In 1924 we initiated a master plan of construction to bring St. Joseph's Parish on an equal footing with the most flourishing Franco-American Parishes of the Diocese of Springfield."

Another attack in December of 1925 left Father Bissonnette almost a total invalid, and several months later Father Cayer was named administrator. The parish's second pastor died quietly on October 27, 1926.

III. Father Arthur J. B. Cayer – 1926-1939

The loss of their beloved Father Bissonnette meant a new beginning for the people of St. Joseph's Parish. The transition was made easier by another priestly servant they had grown to know and love. Reverend Arthur J. B. Cayer, a native of Holyoke, Massachusetts who had been ordained in Canada in 1908, was named to succeed Father Bissonnette on August 1, 1927. He inherited a parish plant that was in excellent physical condition. The parish debt was being paid off at a comfortable rate by means of regular weekly contributions and a monthly collection, as well as the annual one-day's-pay subscription.

By the end of the 1930s the Depression was over; spiritually and physically the parish was well-nourished; but new nightmares soon began to develop. On the night of March 18th, and into the morning of March 19, 1936, the Connecticut River, swollen with torrential downpours, crested to 25 and 30 feet above its normal level. Thousands of families were evacuated and financial disaster left misery in its wake. Luckily for St. Joseph's buildings, their elevated position preserved them from serious damage, but many parishioners were gravely affected. Two months later, Father Cayer suffered a heart attack while driving through Worcester. He was forced to curtail all activities after that time, and his curates assumed the pastoral duties.

Reverend Albert A. Aubertin, ordained in 1922, had served his very first priestly assignment as an assistant to Father Cayer. In 1937, he was again assigned to serve Father Cayer as a curate, being transferred to St. Joseph's on August 6th of that year. His old friend was quite ill and there was a heavy pastoral burden to share. Father Cayer had hoped to renovate the church's basement hall to provide a large meeting place. During his last years, he authorized Father Aubertin to begin the work and the fundraising necessary to cover its cost.

Then, on September 21, 1938, the already weakened walls and foundations of St. Joseph's Church and School, which had withstood the 1923 explosion and the 1936 flood, were shaken by a hurricane. The exterior of the parish buildings suffered minor damage, but the pressing need was for safety measures to remedy possible unseen damage.

On Tuesday of Holy Week, Father Cayer suffered a massive heart attack. He was anointed by Father Aubertin. On Good Friday, April 6, 1939, Father Cayer died at the age of 54. After Bishop O'Leary offered a Pontifical Requiem Mass on the following Tuesday, an impressive funeral procession was conducted to Notre Dame Cemetery, South Hadley Falls. Members of the American Legion were present in final tribute to their fellow member; an American flag was presented to Father Cayer's father at the burial service.

IV. Father Albert A. Aubertin – 1939-1955

Anxiety over the safety of the school building, weakened by the past disasters but untended because of Father Cayer's illness and other pressing parish projects begun previously, dictated the renovation of this edifice as a top priority concern. Extensive repairs proved necessary and were undertaken.

Father Aubertin next began one of his major projects — the renovation of the church's original vestibule — the sacristy and baptismal area. The church itself was next: the supporting rods installed in 1923, the dirt-covered oil paintings, the uncomfortable old pews, begged for a remedy. Engineers advised the parish that although the building's foundation was sound, the walls and roof could collapse if hit by another windstorm.

Then came Pearl Harbor! Construction materials were scarce or non-existent. The war effort had to take priority. Authorities did grant a building permit for safety measures, however, and a steel framework was installed in the church roof and its walls were buttressed.

Within a two-month period during the Summer of 1943, the parishioners of St. Joseph's purchased over $125,000 worth of War Bonds in a campaign — "The Franco-American War Bond Drive" — by French-Americans of New England to purchase a Liberty ship for the U.S. Merchant Fleet before Labor Day. In purchases made through the church after Sunday Masses and on Monday nights, the parish more than doubled its original quota of $62,000.

When peace was finally officially declared, the parish mobilized its plan of action. The basement area was transformed into a temporary chapel; three Christmases were celebrated in this "temporary" chapel, as work continued above.

Preparation began in April, 1947 for Father Aubertin's 25th Anniversary, which was celebrated on June 8th and 10th in the parish's usual enthusiastic manner.

As the year of 1948 began, it became evident that even the proceeds of the 1947 loan were not going to stretch to keep up with skyrocketing costs as construction progressed. Deliberations and consideration led to the launching of a major fund-raising campaign. "The 75th Anniversary Campaign" opened on Sunday, April 25, 1948, with a goal of $75,000.

At the completion of the restoration, the parish debt stood at $172,000, but the delight of the people in the finished masterpiece was unbounded! On December 26, 1948, Bishop O'Leary visited St. Joseph's Church to officiate at a Rededication Ceremony in Honor of the 75th Anniversary of the arrival to the parish of the Sisters of the Holy Cross.

When the parish debt had been reduced to $133,000, on January 1, 1953, a large band of dedicated members joined "L'Association de Families — Paroisse Saint Joseph," founded and established by Reverend Archibald R. Lajoie, a curate at the time. By the end of the year, this on-going activity had collected $275 over its goal of $60,000 to be used as an anniversary gift to the parish at the 80th Anniversary Banquet.

Springfield and the Church of St. Joseph became known to the faithful of Canada when a Montreal radio station broadcast its evening message from Paul-Emile Cardinal Leger, Archbishop of Montreal, as he visited our church for the 18th Congress of L'Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Amérique, which convened here from May 23 through May 26, 1954.

Just six months later, another honor came to St. Joseph's when Pope Pius XII elevated Father Aubertin to the rank of Domestic Prelate with the title of Right Reverend Monsignor.

In May of that year, the people of St. Joseph's were shocked to learn that their pastor, who had always enjoyed good health, had been stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage. As the summer wore on, his condition grew progressively worse. On the morning of Sunday, August 14, 1955, Monsignor Aubertin died in Mercy Hospital. His friend, Reverend Romeo

C. Rheaume, delivered the eulogy at a 10:00 a.m. Solemn Pontifical High Mass sung by Bishop Weldon on Wednesday. More than 100 priests attended the funeral, as did several civic officials. One of the 15 members of the Priests' Choir was Reverend Gerard A. Lafleur of Chicopee Falls.

V. Father Romeo C. Rheaume - 1955-1968

The parish was still in mourning when a new pastor was named on October 11th. Father Romeo C. Rheaume came from North Adams to assume its spiritual care. Born and brought up in Precious Blood Parish, Holyoke, Father Rheaume studied for the priesthood in Quebec and was ordained on December 17, 1921. His extensive priestly background made him an excellent choice to assume the commission of revitalization begun by his predecessor. In this same spirit of "Ever Onward and Upward" was the Family Association, which declared as its new motto, as it entered its 4th consecutive year of debt-reduction labors, "Brulons l'Hypothèque en 1956." [Let's Burn the Mortgage in 1956]. The dedication and zeal of these hard-working parish servants did just that!

In 1962, when the question of whether the extension of I-91 would eliminate the buildings had finally been definitely resolved, Father Rheaume decided to make an addition to the church property. A statue of St. Joseph the Worker, sculpted in Italy of Carrara marble, was donated by the pastor and erected on the lawn where the original rectory had once stood.

The year of 1965 was a thriving one socially for the Parish of St. Joseph, beginning with the receipt of a charter in January for the sponsorship of Explorer Post 67, another milestone in the Scouting program that had begun in the fall of 1957.

Father Robert Choquette, who served St. Joseph's as a curate for eight years, was one of the most enthusiastic promoters of Scouting, both locally and nationally. It was largely through his efforts that the Explorer Post, providing a program for boys aged 15 to 18, was organized at St. Joseph's. In January of 1966, he also was instrumental in establishing a Cub Scout pack for 8 to 10 year-olds.

"Make it known to your parishioners that each one must make realistic contributions — not because we are helping our Nuns and our children, but that we are contributing from our hearts, for the love of our God — promoting and motivating with that spirit, you cannot fail." This was Bishop Weldon's message to a committee that met with him at his residence on October 9, 1967. The group was the Executive Board of the St. Joseph's Convent Building Fund Committee — Father Rheaume and Father Choquette, Directors; Blanche Doyle, Secretary. The meeting's purpose was the presentation of plans to His Excellency for a major construction project — an addition to the convent and the replacement of two furnaces which had been deemed unsafe by Springfield building inspectors.

Over 375 parish boosters attended the January 13, 1968, "Kick-Off Dinner" to inaugurate the fund drive, which had a goal of $200,000. A successful drive was assured when pledges of over $40,000 were obtained in the very first week. In July, ground was broken for the convent addition. The occasion was made even more joyous by the announcement that Bishop Weldon had donated $10,000 to the building fund.

VI. Father Gerard A. Lafleur - 1972- 1987

His Excellency, Bishop Christopher J. Weldon, presided at a Mass of Thanksgiving on December 19, 1971, when the Parish of St. Joseph joined Father Romeo Rheaume in the celebration of his Golden Jubilee of Ordination. It was a joyous occasion which preceded by only six months the beloved spiritual leader's retirement to the position of Pastor Emeritus. Reverend Gerard A. Lafleur was an assistant at St. Theresa's Parish, South Hadley, when he received his pastoral appointment to St. Joseph's in June of 1972.

Father Lafleur is a native of the Parish of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, in the Willimansett neighborhood of Chicopee, Massachusetts. His theological training was undertaken in Maine and Canada and he was ordained on May 30, 1953, at St. Michael's Cathedral by Bishop Weldon. In the year of his assignment to St. Joseph's he also was elected president of the Diocesan Priests' Senate.

Father Lafleur's pastorate was assured of an auspicious beginning — and a busy one — for it was preparation time for the Centennial Celebration of St. Joseph's Parish. To commemorate the 100th Anniversary, a sanctuary renovation was completed in time for the Christmas Midnight Mass, official start of the year-long celebration. The remainder of the restoration was scheduled for completion by May 27th, when Reverend Mr. Ralph H. Adair, a deacon serving in the parish, was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Weldon. This was the first ordination ever held in St. Joseph's Church.

In the parish history composed on the occasion of the centenary of its foundation in 1973, the comment was made that "Pastoring a century-old national parish in a rapidly changing inner city area is a special challenge."

During the last quarter of the 20th century, one of the most critical challenges faced by urban parishes is reflected in a sociological axiom which describes the evolution of the inner city: People who live downtown move uptown; people who live uptown move out of town; people who live out of town don't come back downtown. During the latter years of Father Lafleur's pastorate, that demographic trend from downtown to uptown, and from uptown to the suburbs, affected not only the membership of downtown parishes, but also the enrolment in the parish schools. In 1977, it was announced that St. Thomas Aquinas School would be closed, and the parishioners were invited to send their school-age children to the school staffed by the Sisters of the Holy Cross at Saint Joseph's parish.

In 1987, Father Lafleur was asked to assume the pastorate of Assumption Church in Chicopee Center. As this version of the history of St. Joseph's is being written, it has been announced that he will retire from the administration of the parish on the feast of the Assumption, August 15, 2007. His former parishioners in downtown Springfield offer him our thanks and good wishes: Ad multos et faustissimos annos!

Epilogue – 1987-2005

The previous written histories of the Parish of Saint Joseph of Springfield began with the encomium of Father Gagnier on the occasion of his 50th anniversary of ordination to the priesthood, and the eulogies at the time of his death, and ended with the history published on the occasion of the parish centenary in 1973.

The growing tide of population movement from the inner city to the suburbs can be readily observed during the pastorates of Father Lafleur's immediate successors, Fr. Roland A. Renaud [1987-1991] and Fr. William H. Tourigny [1991-1997]. It is a trend which affects all urban parishes, and which becomes clearly measurable when the number of baptisms and marriages celebrated in the parish church is compared to the number of parishioners enrolled, as young adult members of families who have moved to the suburbs come back to the parish of their childhood to receive the Sacrament of Matrimony in the church where they were baptized, and recently married couples later return for the baptism of their own children. On ordinary weekends, however, they can be found in the pews of the church nearest their homes.

On the occasion of the parish centenary in 1973, Fr. Lafleur commented that his parishioners were "middle-aged, but young at heart". By the time the parish celebrated its 125th anniversary, those parishioners were no longer middle-aged, and their children and grandchildren were even less likely to drive past the territorial parish in their uptown or suburban neighborhoods to worship at the parish of their ancestors downtown, particularly if the mothers and fathers of these young families had different ethnicities.

Twenty years after the closing of St. Thomas Aquinas School, and its merger with St. Joseph's School, the Sisters of the Holy Cross announced in that, due to decrease both in the membership of the Congregation and in the enrolment of the school, they could no longer staff St. Joseph-St. Thomas School after the completion of the 1996-1997 academic term. At about the same time, Fr. Tourigny was appointed pastor of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart parish on Boston Road in uptown Springfield. He was succeeded by Fr. John L. Sullivan, whose parishioners soon learned that, in spite of his family name, he was quite capable of celebrating Mass and preaching in the mother tongue of the parishioners and of his predecessors, to all of whom he is related through his mother, Leonie Montcalm, wife of John Patrick Sullivan, and daughter of Ulric Montcalm and Blanche Monty, late of Holyoke.

During 1997-1998, St. Joseph's School was occupied by the pupils and teachers of the Sumner Avenue School, which was undergoing renovation. The following year, a charter school, the North Star Academy, leased the school premises from the parish.

The presence of the charter school was a great boon to St. Joseph parish, providing a significant source of income independent from the contributions of the parishioners. Annual reports to the Diocese of Springfield reveal that income from weekly envelopes measured both per capita and per family, ranked among the highest percentiles of all parishes in the diocese. The generosity of the parishioners was demonstrated once more when, during the Future of Hope Capital Campaign at the beginning of the new millennium, the parishioners of St. Joseph's pledged three times the amount assessed.

There can be no doubt that the generosity of the parishioners to the Future of Hope Campaign was a reflection of the desire to demonstrate their ability to support their parish, and forestall the possibility of closure or merger with a neighboring parish, a trend becoming more frequent, due to the demographic flow toward the suburbs. The annual reports reflect the generosity of the parishioners but also reveal that the income from the school rental was an increasingly greater proportion of total parish income, since the number of parishioners was diminishing from one year to the next.

How long the parish might have survived under such circumstances is a question that cannot be answered, since conditions were about to change abruptly and drastically for the worse. Early on the afternoon of March 23, 2000, Springfield firefighters responded to a two-alarm blaze that forced the evacuation of 150 students from the North Star Academy, and 400 elementary school students from the adjoining Zanetti School. The following morning, the Springfield Union News reported: "The fire left the roof and third floor of the school building heavily damaged, and there was water damage throughout."

When Father Sullivan, who had been at work in the Diocesan Tribunal, arrived at the scene, he was asked by Fire Chief Gary Cassanelli to enter the church and assess its condition. He cautiously unlocked the door between the sacristy and the nave, and was soaked by a spurt of very cold water. Prevailing winds had lifted the smoke from the fire at the opposite end of the school into the low-lying clouds, and the ventilators siphoned it downward again into the church, coating walls, ceilings, and furnishings with a sooty mist. Saint Joseph Church was filthy, but as the newspaper account reported, it had been "largely unaffected" by the fire in the school.

Within a few months, the nave and sacristies were cleaned and repainted in the color scheme of the 1973 renovation, the cupola above the main altar was re-gilded, and the magnificent church organ was restored and rebuilt. Repairs to the school, on the other hand, would prove to be prohibitive. The decision was made, reluctantly, by the Parish Council to recommend to the Diocese of Springfield that Saint Joseph Church become a mission of Saint Michael's Cathedral parish; the recommendation was accepted, and became effective on July 1, 2002. Fr. Sullivan was appointed Administrator, and his residence moved to the Cathedral rectory. Saint Joseph's was eventually disaffected canonically in 2005, and closed permanently.

History, a sage once said, is merely a prologue to what can be and what will be. The thousands of men and women who came to worship at Saint Joseph parish in Springfield labored zealously on behalf of their parish, their diocese, and the Church universal with a dedication reflected in the achievements noted, with justifiable pride, in this brief history. They have left an honored legacy of work, sacrifice and prayer, which will be an inspiration to all who reflect on the events of nearly a century and a half.

The legacy of the Parish of Saint Joseph shall be the fidelity to God, to Church, to nation and to family of those who have been molded here into a community of faith, of hope and of love, and of their descendants in generations yet to be born. In an ever-evolving world, may the bonds of Christian solidarity and charity prevail over every human adversity. May God continue to shower His blessings on present and future generations whose families came to the Parish of Saint Joseph as a fount of divine grace. May the example of our forebears inspire us to Christ-like living, so that our descendants might be challenged to grow in grace, strength and holiness before God and before others. When the time comes for us to "prepare to enter the Master's joy", may we be welcomed into that family which began with the Christ Child, the foster children of Saint Joseph, spouse of Mary, His Mother and our own.

FROM THE PUBLISHER

In the fall of 2002 while copying parishes in Holyoke, we received permission from Rev. John L. Sullivan to copy his soon-to-be-closed church, St. Joseph of Springfield, Mass. Father Sullivan was able to bring the church registers one or two at a time, to Holyoke where Kathleen Pierce Pasko with help from June Turcotte copied these registers. Copying the records is the most critical step in the process and requires many hours to complete because the early records are so fragile making it difficult to handle them.

We are grateful to all the volunteers who worked long, tedious hours in the production of the repertoire you are holding. As you can see below, there are several phases of production that go into the making of a repertoire.

THIS BOOK AND ITS CONTENTS

This répertoire contains 12,124 baptism records that took place from October 1869 to October 2002 when the church closed.

Our policy when producing a baptism répertoire is to scrutinize each record during the proofing phase to be sure we have not included any obvious private information such as illegitimacy or adoption. We do include all genealogical information contained in the records, i.e., parents, godparents, birth date if given, and all relevant marginal notes for marriage date, place and spouse.

It is also our practice to enter the data as it appears in the original document, however, if there are discrepancies that cannot be resolved as a transposition or typographical error, the researcher is encouraged to contact the parish priest to ask for permission to see the original documents [in this case, the Archdiocesan Archives]. If, with all our data entry and proofreading experience, information cannot be deciphered, we leave the final choice to the user of the information.
