[The Record of Church Votes, comprising those made before 1768 and now extant, is, as stated in the collation of this Book, on pages 356 to 380. Page 380 is next to the last of those numbered (381). The book is reversed, and page 380 is numbered 1. This reverse numbering continues to page 356 (No. 25), and there ends. The earliest extant vote (1658) is there on page 380, or 1; and the latest (1763) on page 358, or 23; with two, intermediately dated, on page 356, or 25.]

[The old or long "s" is used, except for terminations, in these records.]

1658		Church-censures, & votes past in weighty cases, by this church of christ at Charlestown.
4	6.	Upon the 6th of 4th 1658 Brother Thomas Gold, according to the agreement of the Churche the Lords day before: was called forth, to giue an accounte, of his longe withdrawinge from the publick ordinances amongst us, on the Lords day. It was asked Brother Gold, whither he had any rule from Gods worde so to doe? or whither it were not a manifest breach of rule and order of the Gospell? His answer scuerall times was to this effecte, that he had not turned from any ordinance of god, but did attend the worde in [blotted] other places. It was then asked him, whither he did not owne Church-couenant, as an Ordinance of God, and him- selfe in covenant with this Church? He answered he did, but we had cutt him of, or putt him away, by denying him the Lords supper, when onely he had been admonished, and so now had no more priviledg then an Indian, and ther- fore he looked not now at himself, as a Member of our Churche, but was free to goe any whither. He was likewise blamed, that hauing so often professed his desire to attend any light that might help him in his iudgment and practise, about childrens Baptisme; that yet he should forbear, and stay away, when he could not but knowe, that his Pastor was speaking largely to that subject. He confest his wife told him of it: and being asked how he could in faith partake of the Lords supper, whilst he iudged his own baptisme void and null? he owned that it was so, as administred to him as a childe: but since God had giuen him grace, he now came to make use of it, and gett good by it. It being replied, that a person owned by all, as gracious, and fitt for supper, is not yet to be admitted to it, till baptised: he said litle or nothing to it, but spake diuers things, generally offen- sive to ye Brethren, and would owne no fayling. [Last three words indistinct] Hence after much time spent, the Brethren consenting, he was admonished for his breaking away from the Churche in way of schisme, neuer hauing used any means to conuince the Churche, of any irregular proceeding, but continuing peremptorily and contumaciously to iustifie his schisme:  This transaction was speedily after the acting therof truly recorded by the then onely Elder of this church: Zech: Symmes Mr Green the Ruling Elder dying a little before.

[Mr. John Green came to America in 1632, and was admitted to this church March 29, 1633. He was its only ruling elder, and died April 22, 1658. Notice of him may be found in Budington's History First Church, p. 49. Zechariah Symmes was teacher from Dec. 22, 1634, until his death, Feb. 4, 1671. This record is probably the only document by him now existing. Thomas Gould and Hanna Gould were admitted to the church, 1st mo. 21 day, 1652. The name is spelled in these Records, Gould, Goold, Gool, Gold. An illustration of this different spelling appears in the careful writing of elder Green, page 210, viz.: "12th mo. day 26, 1641. Abigail Gould the daughter of John Gold and of Mary his wife was Baptized."]

February 4th. The decision of the late *Synod*¹ about { Baptisme }
 { Consociation } was read, by the elders, at a church meeting (except the preface of the book | containing that decisive act, which had been read before at a | church-meeting January 7th. 1662 & generally well approved) | & liberty given to the brethren to express their objections (if they | had any) against any part yrof: &, after some discourse, the | brethren did generally express y^mselues (at least three 4th of them | by word of mouth) that they did consent to the whole book | for the substance y^of, & desired that the will of God y^{ri}a might | be attended; &, upon a vote silentiary propounded, it was so | carried, nemine contradicente, in the affirmative.

November. 18. Bro: Thomas *Osburn*² being leavened with principles of AnaBaptisme | was (the brethren consenting) admonished for frequent irregular | withdrawing himself from the publick worship of God, holding | it to be no sin to neglect the publick ordinances of God upon | the Lords day, even when they might conveniently be en- | joyed; & for continuinge impentitent in his sin.

On the same day also, it was consented to by the brethren, that | his wife, leavened wth principles of Anabaptisme, & Quaker- | -isme, should receive an admonition, for her notorious neg- | lect of the publiq worship of God, denying our churches | to be true churches, & denying her membership wth us, & also | the churches power over her, & continuinge impentitent | in her sin. She went home from the Assembly when the Admo- | nition should have been declared to her, but however it was | declared that she was under the publiq offence of y^e church. |

And at the same time

Bro: Thomas Gool also persisting in his schismaticall withdrawing | from the church, notwithstanding his former admonition & now | for denying his Relation to this church as a ¹ This Synod assembled at Boston in September, 1662. It consisted of all the ministers in Massachusetts and Elders and Messengers from the churches, and returned answers to two questions propounded to it by the General Court:—1. Who are the subjects of Baptism? 2. Whether according to the Word of God there ought to be a Consociation of Churches, and what should be the manner of it? The Synod decided in favor of consociation, and, substantially, to the first question: "That church members, who were admitted in minority, understanding the doctrine of faith, and publicly professing their assent thereunto, not scandalous in life, and solemnly owning the covenant before the church, wherein they give up themselves and children to the Lord, and subject themselves to the government of Christ in his church, their children are to be baptised." Mather, Magnalia v. 64-64, ed. London, 1702. Holmes, Am. 1, 382, etc.

brother of it, & also | for denyinge the churches power | over him, was againe | (with the consent of the brethren) declared to be under the | great offence of the church, & rebuked for his impenitency | in that sin of his.

Febr: 21.

Bro: Thomas Osburn received a 2^d Admonition (wth the consent | of the brethren) for his obstinacy in his former sin for which | he had been (nov: 18.) admonished, & aggravated by another | degree of schisme, refusing (as he expressly, & vehemently | affirmed) to hold communion with the church any longer | as formerly he had done; bec: we held Baptisme
of children | to be an ordinance of God, &c:

Febr: 28.

The acknowledgment & confession of Stephen Fosdick, (who | had been formerly excommunicated) (anno 1643. May y^e 7th) | in order to his acceptance into our Communion, by
Absolution, | was as followeth, vizt:

“The Covenant of the church being (for the “summe of it) a solemne promise or eugagem^t “to walk with God, & with his people according “to the word of God, I do now heartily ap“-prove of it, & close with it, & am sorry that “I haue at any time spoken against it: “Having neglected likewise to hear the church “in their dealings with me for my offense, I “doe unfainedly repent thereof, & desire God “ & his people to forgive me.

This was read to the church, accepted of by all as satis-factory, He was (the brethren consenting) received to that state of Communiō which he had before his excommunica-tion, & by the sentence of the Eldership declared to be soe restored:.

Febr: 28.

bro: Tho: Gool was again admonished, (wth the consent of y^e brethren) | for his impenitency in his former sin of schism-
-inge for which he | had been admonished, & wth all now refus-ing to give an account to | the church who did enquire con-cerning a private meeting kept | at his house on the Lords day* wth bro: Osburn & other Anabaptists, wⁿ | he should and might conveniently have been present wth the church | in the publiq worship of God;

he said it was not the season for him | to Answer, & y^rfore would not give an account of it: for which | th^t above sd he was accordingly censured.

November 27.

There having been many thoughts of heart touching the Doctrine | of the late Synod about the children of the church in order to the | effectuall practice of the same; It was propounded to vote whether | the brethren were satisfied soe far forth as that there might be a | proceeding to the practice thereof, & it passed in the affirmative | by their silence (the testimony of their consent) after liberty was | granted once & again to any of them, that would, to object if they | had any thing from ye word of God to alledge against it; but there | was not one Contradient.

1665
July 9th

The Church, hearing that bro: Gool, & bro: Osburn had | together with other Anabaptists, embodied themselves in | a pretended-church way; sent Deacon Lynd & Deacon | Stitt-son to them with this message; vizt: That they should | be present with this church the next Lord's Day in ye | publiq worship of God, & at the evening y'of to stay, & | give an account to the church of that report which | we heard concerning them, as also concerning their | former offences: & the church did then desire our | Deacons to acquaint our sister Osburn (that hath | been for some time under the publick offence of | the church) with that meeting, & that she should be | present likewise with her husband.

1665.
July, 16.

Our Deacons having carried the message of the church to | bro: Gool, bro: Osburn, & o' sister Osburn, to come & hear | the church; the Answer returned back to the church | was negative. bro: Gool said he should not come, & if | our church had any thing to say against him, they should | acquaint the society wth it to which he was then | joyned: saying also that he was no member of |

our church, & said, your church hath nothing to do with |
me. (bro: osburn said that he had given his reasons to | the church formerly why he could not hold communion wth | it, vizt: because of Infant Baptisme. 2. our allowing none | but such as had humane learning to be in the ministry. 3.
our | severe dealing with those of a contrary judgment from us. | & y^{fore} said he should not come to the church. (: our sister | Osburn's Answer was that she desired not to continue with | the church, but would be dismissed which way they would, | & that she could not come to the church, she should | sin against her conscience if she did.

These members thus refusing to appear, the church | judged it meet to wayt with some farther patience upon o' | brethren above s^d, & sister: & did therefore desire our Deacons | again, with our brother ensigne Tidd, to carry this mes-sage following to them, vizt: to tell them that they are | under the further offence of the church for their | separatiō from our Communion, & refusing to hear y^e | church: & that the church doth desire, & require them in | the name of Christ that they return to us, & come & | hear the church, &
give an account the next Lord's | day of their withdrawing.

[Church Votes, Page 5 (376) concluded.]

1665.
July. 23.

Our messengers having delivered the message above said | to bro: Gool, bro: Osburn, & sister osburn. the Answer | returned by them was the same (in a manner) they gave | the Week before.
bro: Gool denying his relation to y^e | church in charlestown, & that they had nothing to doe | wth him, & also said that they were to have the Lord's | supper administered in their Church the next Lords day | & y^r: he should not come: bro: osburn said he should | not come to the church, & that the church might | proceed as they pleased with him. o^r sister osburn's | answer was as formerly, refusing to come: Where-

whereupon it was propounded to vote (after a proposal of it had | been made by some of the brethren) That if there did come in | nothing of repentance manifested by these persons to y^e church | betw: this & the next Lord's day, whither then the church should | proceed (seeing these matters had formerly been so fully & | often debated) without further debating the matter the next | Lord's day, & (if nothing of more then ordinary weight to | hinder did fall out in ye juterim) that then these our brethren | & she o^r sister should have the censure of excommu- nica- | tion past against them? It was unanimously carried by a | silentary vote in the Affirmative, not one of the bre- | -thren present expressing a word against it.

nothing of Repentance intervening — bro: Thomas Gool, bro: Thomas Osburn, & his wife o^r sister os- | burn, were (with the consent of the brethren) excommu- nicated, for their impenitency in their schismatical with- | drawing from the church, neglecting to hear the church. |

A Church-act for the provision for the Lord's Table; viz: |
That at the beginning of every $\frac{1}{2}$ yeer, each Communicant | shall bring in 12^d to the Deacons box for the $\frac{1}{2}$ yeer that is | to Note.—The margins of pages 273 to 282 in the Record-Book are cut, so that a little of the MS. is lost, and are mended with strips of thin paper pasted upon them.

NOTE.—The REGISTER, published January, 1872, contained a photolithographic fac-simile of Elder Green's writing (1632-58), showing one of the oldest pages of Ecclesiastical Record in this country, and also of the Rev. Thomas Shepard's form of entry, beginning Jan. 1663. This Number of the REGISTER contains similar representations of the Rev. Zechariah Symmes's writing (pastor 1634-71), who made records from the death of Elder Green in 1658 until the book came into the hands of Mr. Shepard, Sen.; also, more of the latter's writing; and the Rev. Charles Morton's (pastor 1686-98), who kept the book from the time of Mr. Shepard, Jr., until that of the Rev. Simon Bradstreet, a copy of whose first entry follows. These fac-similes show the styles of writing that appear in the Record during the first century it was kept.
