St-Joseph Church, Laconia, New Hampshire

(Quoted material was provided by the parish; other information was taken from the same source.)

"During the building of the Concord and Montréal railroad, Catholic settlers began to locate in the area surrounding Laconia and Lake Village (Lakeport). As their numbers grew, they were occasionally visited by priests from other parishes, notably, beginning in 1845, by Fathers DALY and MCDONALD of Manchester.

"Among the first Catholic residents of Laconia were John O'SHEA who came here in 1858, and Michael SCOTT. There was also a family by the name of O'NEIL. In Lakeport, at the time, there were several Catholic families. Among those listed were the DUNLEAVEYS, MURPHYs, HARRINGTONs and the LEAVITTs.

"Church records show that Father Isadore NOISEUX of Lancaster, New Hampshire was given charge of the area in 1856. Lacking a church for more than ten years, Mass was said at Folsom's Hall. It was in 1866 that land was purchased on Messer Street, corner of Lyford Street, for a church."

In 1867, work began on the church building and was completed two years later. In 1871, a resident priest was named by the Portland, Maine diocese; he was Father John MURPHY and in addition to Laconia-Lakeport, his territory included Franklin, Ashland, Canaan, Lebanon, Hanover and all the hamlets in between.

In April, 1872, Father MURPHY was succeeded by Father Michael J. GOODWIN, "a gentleman of great learning, eloquence and zeal". He remained as pastor of St-Joseph's until August, 1877 when he was replaced by Father J. Lambert SCHAKERS, a native of Holland who was known to his parish as Father John LAMBERT. In 1881, the parish purchased a cemetery lot of six acres, now called St-Lambert's Cemetery on Province Street. Father LAMBERT furnished the church with a bell and an elegant pipe organ. Father LAMBERT died in 1895.

The next pastor was Father John POWERS, a sickly man who died in 1898. He was succeeded by Father Charles R. HENNON, a native of Manchester, England. Parish property increased under the energetic Father HENNON who served until his death in 1911. Between the years 1915 and 1926, Father James F. CREEDEN served as pastor, being replaced by Father Thomas REDDEN.

A new church was dedicated by Manchester Bishop George A. GUERTIN in 1930. In 1945, a new pastor came to St-Joseph; he was Monsignor John W. SLINY, a quiet, scholarly man, noted for his interest in books. He died in 1956 and was followed by Monsignor John BOYD. When Monsignor BOYD retired, he was replaced by Father Desmond O'CONNOR, better known as Father Des. It was during his tenure at St-Joseph that the parish celebrated its centennial. Father O'CONNOR retired in 1975 and died the following year.

Father Arthur SULLIVAN was the next pastor, coming to St-Joseph's in June, 1975. He was followed by Father Robert J. KEMMERY who was pastor from 1976 through 1982. In 1983, Father Michael J. GRIFFIN came to St-Joseph's where he remained until June of 1992. Father William QUIRK is the current pastor and has been since 1992.

The rectory of St-Joseph's of Laconia was built in 1865. On 19 SEP 1994, it was listed in the Historic Register.

FROM THE PUBLISHER

Nearly a year ago, Alice Ortakales and her daughter-in-law, Denise, approached Rev. William Quirk, Pastor of St. Joseph's Church in Laconia, New Hampshire for permission to copy the church registers. After explaining our services and showing Rev. Quirk a sample of other baptism "repertoires" published by the ACGS, he agreed to our proposal. So, the process by which we produce the repertoire of baptisms you are now holding was begun.

Alice and Denise spent an enormous amount of time photo copying the original registers which began in October of 1871. The Ortakales' were allowed to copy the registers through 16 October 1993. The "repertoire" contains approximately 7,426 baptisms. The first few registers were written in Latin. In order to attain some accuracy in the given names, town records of Laconia were consulted. Some birth records were found but not all. Consequently, some importance should be attached to the given names but, in some circumstances it was impossible to tell if the name was Marie, Mary or Maria; Jacob, Jacques or James, etc. Therefore, users should note that information in square brackets [] was not included in the church record but found in the town records.

The following is a list of the many people who helped bring this project to fruition, amassing incalculable hours:

Data Entry Team: Theresa Beaudoin; G. Russell Bussière; Donald P. Chaput; Marcel P. Coté; Pauline G. Coté; Paul J. Godin; Jeanne Massé; Robert Neveux. Copy Records for Proof Readers: Marcel P. Coté. Proof Readers: Thérèse M. Bédard; Rita E. Bellerose; Sylvia Boucher; Réal R. Caza; Lorraine Deschenes; Jeannette Desmarais; Aline Gagnon; Madeleine S. Labonté; Thérèse Maheu; Lorraine R. Miville; Eugene E. Thibodeau; Jeannette St. Laurent; Lynne Swenson. Corrections: Pauline G. Coté. Publishing: Judith Arseneault; Pauline

Cusson; Roland Marchand; Anne-Marie Perrault.

HOW TO USE THIS REPERTOIRE

This book contains baptisms from 1871 to 1993. The parents' names will be in the right hand column in parentheses (). The rest of the information is self-explanatory. Asterisks (*) are used to indicate any additional information.

If a baptism is noted with a marriage date/place and the name of the person to whom the baptized person was married, this information will be contained on the last line of a baptismal record. The "sponsors" referred to are the godparents.

If an entry was illegible, our best effort was made to deduce its contents from a marriage or burial record entered later in the parish by a different writer.

Some abbreviations you might encounter: f. = feu, feue (deceased at the time of this event); v., vve. - veuf, veuve (widow, widower)
