St-Joseph Church, Laconia, New Hampshire

(Quoted material was provided by the parish; other information was taken from the same source.)

"During the building of the Concord and Montréal railroad, Catholic settlers began to locate in the area surrounding Laconia and Lake Village (Lakeport). As their numbers grew, they were occasionally visited by priests from other parishes, notably, beginning in 1845, by Fathers DALY and MCDONALD of Manchester.

"Among the first Catholic residents of Laconia were John O'SHEA who came here in 1858, and Michael SCOTT. There was also a family by the name of O'NEIL. In Lakeport, at the time, there were several Catholic families. Among those listed were the DUNLEAVEYS, MURPHYs, HARRINGTONs and the LEAVITTs.

"Church records show that Father Isadore NOISEUX of Lancaster, New Hampshire was given charge of the area in 1856. Lacking a church for more than ten years, Mass was said at Folsom's Hall. It was in 1866 that land was purchased on Messer Street, corner of Lyford Street, for a church."

In 1867, work began on the church building and was completed two years later. In 1871, a resident priest was named by the Portland, Maine diocese; he was Father John MURPHY and in addition to Laconia-Lakeport, his territory included Franklin, Ashland, Canaan, Lebanon, Hanover and all the hamlets in between.

In April, 1872, Father MURPHY was succeeded by Father Michael J. GOODWIN, "a gentleman of great learning, eloquence and zeal". He remained as pastor of St-Joseph's until August, 1877 when he was replaced by Father J. Lambert SCHAKERS, a native of Holland who was known to his parish as Father John LAMBERT. In 1881, the parish purchased a cemetery lot of six acres, now called St-Lambert's Cemetery on Province Street. Father LAMBERT furnished the church with a bell and an elegant pipe organ. Father LAMBERT died in 1895.

The next pastor was Father John POWERS, a sickly man who died in 1898. He was succeeded by Father Charles R. HENNON, a native of Manchester, England. Parish property increased under the energetic Father HENNON who served until his death in 1911. Between the years 1915 and 1926, Father James F. CREEDEN served as pastor, being replaced by Father Thomas REDDEN.

A new church was dedicated by Manchester Bishop George A. GUERTIN in 1930. In 1945, a new pastor came to St-Joseph; he was Monsignor John W. SLINY, a quiet, scholarly man, noted for his interest in books. He died in 1956 and was followed by Monsignor John BOYD. When Monsignor BOYD retired, he was replaced by Father Desmond O'CONNOR, better known as Father Des. It was during his tenure at St-Joseph that the parish celebrated its centennial. Father O'CONNOR retired in 1975 and died the following year.

Father Arthur SULLIVAN was the next pastor, coming to St-Joseph's in June, 1975. He was followed by Father Robert J. KEMMERY who was pastor from 1976 through 1982. In 1983, Father Michael J. GRIFFIN came to St-Joseph's where he remained until June of 1992. Father William QUIRK is the current pastor and has been since 1992.

The rectory of St-Joseph's of Laconia was built in 1865. On 19 SEP 1994, it was listed in the Historic Register.

FROM THE PUBLISHER

Nearly a year ago, Alice Ortakales and her daughter-in-law, Denise, approached Rev. William Quirk, Pastor of St. Joseph's Church in Laconia, New Hampshire for permission to copy the church registers. After explaining our services and showing Rev. Quirk a sample of other "repertoires" published by this Society, he agreed to our proposal. So, the process by which we produce the repertoire of burials you are now holding was begun.

Alice and Denise spent an enormous amount of time photo copying the original registers which began in 1900. The Ortakales' were allowed to copy the registers through 16 October 1993. The "repertoire" contains approximately 2,048 death records. The first few registers were written in Latin. The same procedures were used for the death records as for the marriage records found in another "repertoire."

The following is a list of the many people who helped bring this project to press:

Data Entry Team: Theresa Beaudoin; Donald P. Chaput; Marcel P. Coté; Paul F. Godin; J. Paul Levesque; Jeanne Massé.
Copy Records for Proof Readers: Marcel P. Coté. Proof Readers: Thérèse M. Bédard; Réal R. Caza; Lorraine Deschenes; Barbara Fairfield; Madeleine S. Labonté; Thérèse Maheu; Lorraine R. Miville; Jeannette St. Laurent. Corrections: Pauline G. Coté.
Publishing: Roland Marchand; Pauline Cusson; Anne-Marie Perrault.

HOW TO USE THIS REPERTOIRE

This book contains burial records from 1900 to 1993. It is an alphabetical listing by surname of the deceased.

All the remaining data is self-explanatory. It should be noted that in American records, a married female will probably be listed alphabetically under her married name at time of death. The opposite occurs in Canadian records - a married female retains her maiden name on all documents of importance, including her death record.

Asterisks (*) are used to indicate any pertinent additional information that may have been entered in the original record.

If an entry was illegible, our best effort was made to deduce its contents from a baptismal or burial record entered earlier or later in the parish by a different writer.

Some abbreviations you might encounter: f. = feu, feue (deceased at the time of this event); v., vve. - veuf, veuve (widow, widower)
