ST-AUGUSTIN, Mother Church of the French Speaking People Manchester, New Hampshire

St-Augustin parish was founded in May 1871 as a result of the arrival in Manchester of French-Canadians in large numbers. At the time, there were 2000 French-Canadians living and working in the Queen City. Manchester was the home of the Amoskeag Corporation, the world's leading producer of cotton goods. New Hampshire was still part of the Diocese of Portland (Maine) at the time. Most Reverend David BACON, Bishop of Portland, named Abbé Joseph Augustin CHEVALIER (1871-1924) as St-Augustin's first Pastor.

Father CHEVALIER dedicated the new parish to Saint Augustin of Hippo, and placed the new church under the protection of the Early Church's Great Bishop and "Doctor of the Church". Later that same year of 1871, the Amoskeag Manufacturing Company donated land for the new church building and it was dedicated on Thanksgiving Day, 28 NOV 1873 by Bishop BACON.

St-Augustin parish grew during Father CHEVALIER's 53 years' pastorate. In 1879, the cemetery was organized; in 1881, l'Académie Notre-Dame opened, and in 1890, there was a separate boys' school, l'Académie St-Augustin. Later, in 1892, an orphanage, Hospice St-Vincent-de-Paul, would open.

In 1908, St-Augustin parish was the second largest in Manchester with 7,727 parishioners. Since the parish's beginnings in 1871, until 1993, there were approximately 18,650 baptisms recorded at St-Augustin Church. In 1910, a parish hall was built, Salle Sainte-Cécile and in 1915, Father CHEVALIER was instrumental in the construction of Académie Villa-Augustina, a "convent" boarding school for girls, still operated by the Religious of Jesus-Mary.

In May, 1921, the parish observed its 50th anniversary. A month later, Father CHEVALIER became seriously ill, recovering only partially. In 1924, he resigned; he died in 1929.

The second Pastor of St-Augustin parish was Father Georges-Arthur DEMERS who took over in October, 1924. He constructed Ste-Thérèse Chapel and School which was then a mission of St-Augustin. Father DEMERS died in 1929.

Father Aimé-Philippe BOIRE was appointed third

Pastor in September 1929. During his pastorate, the Sisters of Holy Cross arrived to teach in the newly consolidated school, St-Augustin School. Father Boire remained as Pastor until the end of 1947.

Early in 1948, Monsignor Edouard LESSARD, formerly a Curate at St-Augustin, became the fourth Pastor. Father LESSARD was elevated to Monsignor 17 JAN 1951. He remained in his position until his health forced his retirement in 1967. He died in early 1971.

Father Odore GENDRON, the fifth Pastor, arrived in September, 1967. He continued the implementation of Second Vatican Council reforms. On 21 DEC 1970, Father GENDRON was made Prelate of Honor by Pope Paul VI. Monsignor GENDRON resigned early in 1971 to be followed by Father Roland TANCREDE, sixth Pastor. He presided over many centennial events, later restoring the organ and the interior of the church. St-Augustin School closed in 1973, after 93 years in operation. Father TANCREDE was elevated to Monsignor in 1986, and bestowed the rank of Prelate of Honor by Pope John-Paul, II. He retired in 1990.

Father André GAGNON was appointed as seventh Pastor and served from July to November in 1990. He was followed by the current Pastor, Father Adrien LONGCHAMPS, a well-recognized child of the parish of St-Augustin.

Under the care of Father LONGCHAMPS, St-Augustin has adapted to many changes, as it nears its 125th anniversary. Its progress in spiritual development by new methods and shared ministries will carry it into the new millennium. However, the time will come when the French language will completely disappear but Father CHEVALIER's mission to shepherd his French-Canadian flock will still be largely preserved in their descendants.

FROM THE PUBLISHER

After many months of painstaking dedication by the volunteer members listed below, the baptismal records of St. Augustin Church in Manchester, NH, are now in print. Hundreds of volunteer hours have come to fruition in the following volumes published with the genealogist in mind. We have taken care not to inadvertently divulge any illegitimacies or adoptive names.

We are eternally grateful to Fr. Adrien Longchamps for putting up with us almost daily when we were in the photocopying/verifying phase. He has been extremely patient while we entered 18,648 baptismal records into computer format, proof read twice, corrected typographical errors, and finally printed the 1,200 page repertoire of baptisms from 1871 to 1993.

HOW TO USE THIS REPERTOIRE

This book contains baptisms from 1871 through 1993. Each record contains the parents and godparents' names as they appear in the original record. An asterisk * next to the person's first name indicates that there were more names than this field allowed to be entered. The continuation appears in the last field of each record.

If the marginal notes contained marriage information, we entered the primary information and if space permitted, any additional information. Because of space constraints we also abbreviated the commonly used names of Joseph and Marie. Therefore, the second sort by the child's first name will place the Js first, then the Jos. and finally the Josephs.

If a baptism does not appear where you think it should be, it may be alphabetized under J, Jos, or Joseph + one or two other given names. Also, genealogists should recognize that if there is an illegitimacy, you will have to consult the church records or the civil records which could be closed depending on the age of the record.
