St Joseph Parish Salem, New Hampshire

For the first year of this parish in 1909, the services were held at Canobie Lake and conducted by Reverend Herbert Hermon of Westville. The first pastor, Rev. John McNamara arrived in 1910. It was during his tenure as pastor that the first wooden church was built in 1912. In 1913, he completed the first church in Pelham and a brick church in Salem.

The Rev. Thomas J. Loughlin became the second pastor in 1913 and remained until 1926. It was under the pastorate of Fr. John J. Boyd, that the construction of a new fieldstone edifice was begun. Fieldstones were gathered from throughout the area as parishioners worked together to build this church. The structure was dedicated on July 7, 1929 by the Most Reverend Georges-Marie Albert Guertin, D.D., the Bishop of Manchester.

Rev. Loughlin was followed by Rev. Patrick J. Kenneally from April of 1945 to September of 1951 and Rev. Michael J. Murtagh from 1951 to 1957 during whose spiritual leadership the parish community continued to grow. The sixth pastor, Rev. Cornelius Cahill arrived in 1957 and it was under his guidance and the parishioners' generosity that new construction was begun. His administrative ability was responsible for the construction of the new rectory, the Religious Education Center (small hall), the spacious school, and the auditorium. He was also responsible for bringing the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur into the parish, even before the foundation of the school.

Salem continued to grow during Msgr. Cahill's pastorate. In order to meet the needs of the many Catholics moving into the area, construction was begun in Windham and the south end of Salem. Today, both St. Matthews and Mary Queen of Peace parishes serve as constant reminders of the hard work and dedication that the people of this area have had in building the moral, physical and spiritual welfare of the people of this area.

In 1973, Rev. John J. Horan became the seventh pastor of St Joseph's church. The parish was experiencing tremendous growth as well as the birth pangs of post-Vatican II. Father Horan saw the need for lay involvement and, during his administration, many seeds were sown that would lead to renewal and rejuvenation.

St. Joseph's parish flourished under the spiritual direction of our eighth pastor, the Rev. Karl Dowd. By 1979, the commemorative 50th year of the fieldstone church, the staff included six full-time members: Fr. Dowd, Fr. Al Jannetta, Fr. Marc Montminy, Sr. Teresa Regan (Pastoral Minister), Sr. Harriet Cutting (Religious Education Coordinator), and Sr. Mary Anne Laughlin (Youth Minister). The laity became more fully a part of the parish community through the various lay ministries introduced at that time. St. Joseph's parish was one of the largest parishes in the diocese in 1979, with over 2,800 families, and 1,000 young people enrolled in the parish religious education program. Father Dowd was the first Catholic priest to serve as President of the Salem Council of Churches.

St Joseph Catholic Community is presently pastored by Fr. Richard W. Connors who was appointed as pastor in July 1986. Under his guidance, the activities and services of the community have flourished. Service has been a hallmark of St. Joseph Catholic Community since its beginning, and its history has been one of giving. Though many outward changes have taken place, St. Joseph's is still a place where human beings worship their God, and serve each other and the larger community.

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

Burials are sorted by last name then by the first name of the deceased person. Name is followed by the age at death and the date of death. If the deceased person was married or widowed, the spouse's name is entered on the second line. Where parents were listed, they are entered on the third line. The notes field is used for special information that does not fall into the regular categories, such as additional first names, age at death is more detailed than the regular field permits, and unusual causes of death. The user should note that the place of death is not always the place of burial.

This repertoire should be used as a guide. If the information provokes doubt as to validity, the civil record or newspaper obituary should be consulted for more details. Other sources to consult would be city directories and census records.

If you would like the marriages and baptisms of St. Joseph to complete the set, they can be purchased from ACGS.
