In Appreciation

Rev. Joseph Aubin, Pastor of St. John the Baptist and Immaculate Conception in Keeseville, NY, for allowing NNYACGS the use of the Record Books of Immaculate Conception to develop this volume.

Elizabeth Brelia, Secretary of St. John the Baptist Church in Keeseville, NY, for help with pictures and the history of the Parish of Immaculate Conception. The history is on pages I to XI followed by the Missions and Stations of Immaculate Conception and the list of Pastors and Associates of the parish.

Description of Parish Boundaries
Immaculate Conception Parish
Keeseville, New York

Northern Boundary: Bounded on the north by the parish of Peru, beginning just north of the settlement of Harkness at the point where the D& H Railroad crosses the Harkness Road and continuing in an easterly direction along the Harkness Road to the Union Road, then a short distance southerly and once more along the Harkness Road crossing Route 22 and thence along the Chasm Road and the Fuller Road up to the northern boundary of the Town of Ausable thence easterly along the north bounds of the Town of Ausable to the mouth of the Ausable River at Lake Champlain.

Eastern Boundary: Lake Champlain from the last described point southerly to the north bounds of the Town of Willsboro in Essex County.

Southern Boundary: Bounded on the south by the parishes of Willsboro and Elizabethtown following along the north bounds of the Towns of Willsboro and Lewis in Essex County, crossing Route 9 to a point on the township line just south of Poke-O-Moonshine Mountain.

Western Boundary: Bounded on the west by the parish of Clintonville from the last described point along a line through Poke-O-Moonshine and Baldface Mountain to a point at the Clinton County Line along the Ausable River opposite the intersection Route 9N and the Charley Harkness Road, thence continuing northerly along a line extending to the Ausable branch of the D & H Railroad at the northerly village limits of the Hamlet of Harkness which is the point of beginning.

Note: The description for the parishes of Immaculate Conception and St. John the Baptist in Keeseville are exactly the same since our understanding is that Immaculate Conception is a territorial parish and St. John the Baptist is a national parish covering the same territory.

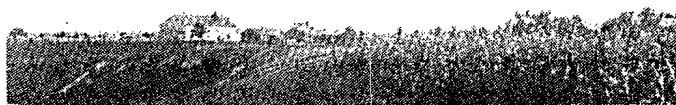

The Sesquicentennial History of The Church of the Immaculate Conception

The area south of Plattsburgh, in the early 1800's, was heavily wooded with prime timber - no roads, no village, no grand houses - just wilderness, sparsely populated with primitive buildings, as it began to be settled. By 1806-07 the settlement by the name of Anderson Falls, after John W. Anderson, had developed. It was also referred to as Long Shute by the Indians. It later became known and incorporated as the Village of Keeseville. Travel to the area was principally by boat, horseback or by foot.

The early settlers were largely of French and Irish background. The Catholics found no Church or resident priest, as the closest was Plattsburgh to the North, or Split Rock to the South. They gathered for worship, and occasionally for Mass, in homes when a priest from as far away as Burlington, Vermont would pass through the area. The date of the first Mass, although uncertain, was about 1825 and the setting for this historic event was the home of Hugh McGill, John Keenan or Hugh McCarthy. Father Jerimiah O'Callaghan, who is credited with visiting every Catholic family along both sides of Lake Champlain, was the celebrant. The mid 1820's occasionally brought priests from Plattsburgh. Father McGilligan, Father Mannigan and Father Rogers served in succession. It was at this time talk of building a church apparently began. However, it wasn't until 1835, under Rev. John Rogers, who is said to have been the first pastor, that a church was actually built. Father Rogers was born 24 Dec. 1808. He was educated at Chambly and the Sulpitian Seminary, Montreal, was ordained a priest 17 Sept. 1834 by Bishop Dubois, in the Cathedral at Montreal. Father Rogers was stationed at Plattsburgh in 1834-36; he died 9 July 1887.

Land was purchased from Josiah Fisk & Oliver Keese 2nd by the Trustees Hugh Sheridan, Daniel Tallon, James McGuire and Joseph LePort, of the Roman Catholic Society of Keeseville, on the 15th of March 1834. There is mention of an earlier deed to Rt. Rev. John Dubois for the use of the Roman Catholic Church in Keeseville on the 20th day of February 1828. In the spring of 1835, under the direction of Father Rogers, construction began. The work of laying the foundation, cutting and hauling the timbers, building of the walls, and covering the roof was done by the parishioners themselves. The size of the building can be plainly seen from the picture below.

It contained three windows on each side, and had three entrances - one in front, one on each side of the rear of the building. There was no belfry or steeple but, in its place, a simple cross. In the summer, Bishop John Dubois of the Diocese of New York, on his second visit to the extreme northern end of his diocese, dedicated the new church. What a gala day it must have been! Catholics from neighboring settlements for miles around, traveled to Keeseville for the dedication of THE CHURCH OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

How many annals might be written of the joys and sorrows that have come into the lives of the good souls who worshipped at the altar of this little church. What tales might be told of the heroic sacrifices, of the tedious long journeys on foot or by horse, to practice their faith. The legends and stories handed down through generations, faint as they have become, serve today in the homes of the parish to keep alive the glory of other days, and the memory of those faithful men and women.

Father Rogers administered to a scattered people covering the present Towns of Peru, AuSable, Jay, Black Brook and as far south as Port Henry until Father James Rooney succeeded him in 1839. Rev. James Rooney was born in Leixlip, County Kildare, Ireland, January 1794. In September 1839 he was found laboring zealously on the mission in what is now the Diocese of Ogdensburg. From 1839 to 1854 he was pastor at Plattsburgh and in addition was attending to various missions in Essex and Clinton Counties. He departed this life 31 October 1863. His duties in Keeseville were until 1848 when it was made a separate parish by Bishop McCloskey of the Diocese of Albany and no longer had the status of mission of Plattsburgh.

Rev. Michael McDonnell succeeded Fr. Rooney. Fr. McDonnell, after completing his theological studies at Fordham, was ordained by Bishop Hughes 2 March 1844. The following year he was assigned to Keeseville, Essex County being the first resident pastor of that place. He also attended St. Peter's Church, Troy. Through the efforts of Fr. McDonnell a church was begun at Port Henry. Father McDonnell died in Cuba.

1851 brought a change of pastors with Father B.F. McLaughlin succeeding Father McDonnell. However, Father McLaughlin's pastorate was brief and in 1852 Rev. James Keveny was named pastor. He was a native of Killala, Ireland, and the eldest of three brothers, all of whom became priests. He studied at Mt. St. Mary's and on 29 January 1843 was ordained by Bishop Hughes at Fordham. In 1854, under Fr.

Keveny's direction, the church of St. Rose of Lima at Black Brook was built. In the same year he erected a stone Church in AuSable Forks. He was called to his reward 13 March 1880.

In 1853 the French speaking people of the village formed a church under their own nationality. They purchased the Old Baptist Church which was for sale on upper Main Street. The church was called St. Jean de Baptiste under the direction of Rev. P. Neyron.

By now THE CHURCH OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION, feeling the effects of the population boom of the 1840's and early 1850's, was enlarged. An addition, which lengthened the Church by one-third, added two more windows to each side at the rear of the building.

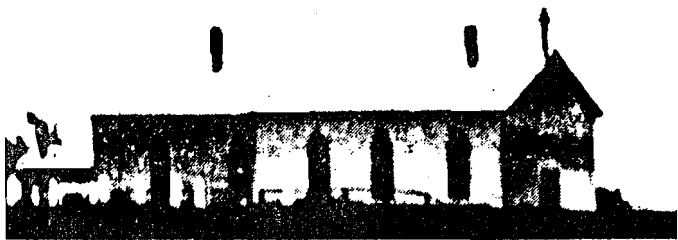

Photo from about the time of the Civil War, showing the early church at Keeseville and cemetery alongside the church. The addition to the church at the rear and the original building of 1835 are clearly visible.

In 1861 Rev. Philip Keveny succeeded his brother and remained until 1863. He was followed by Rev.

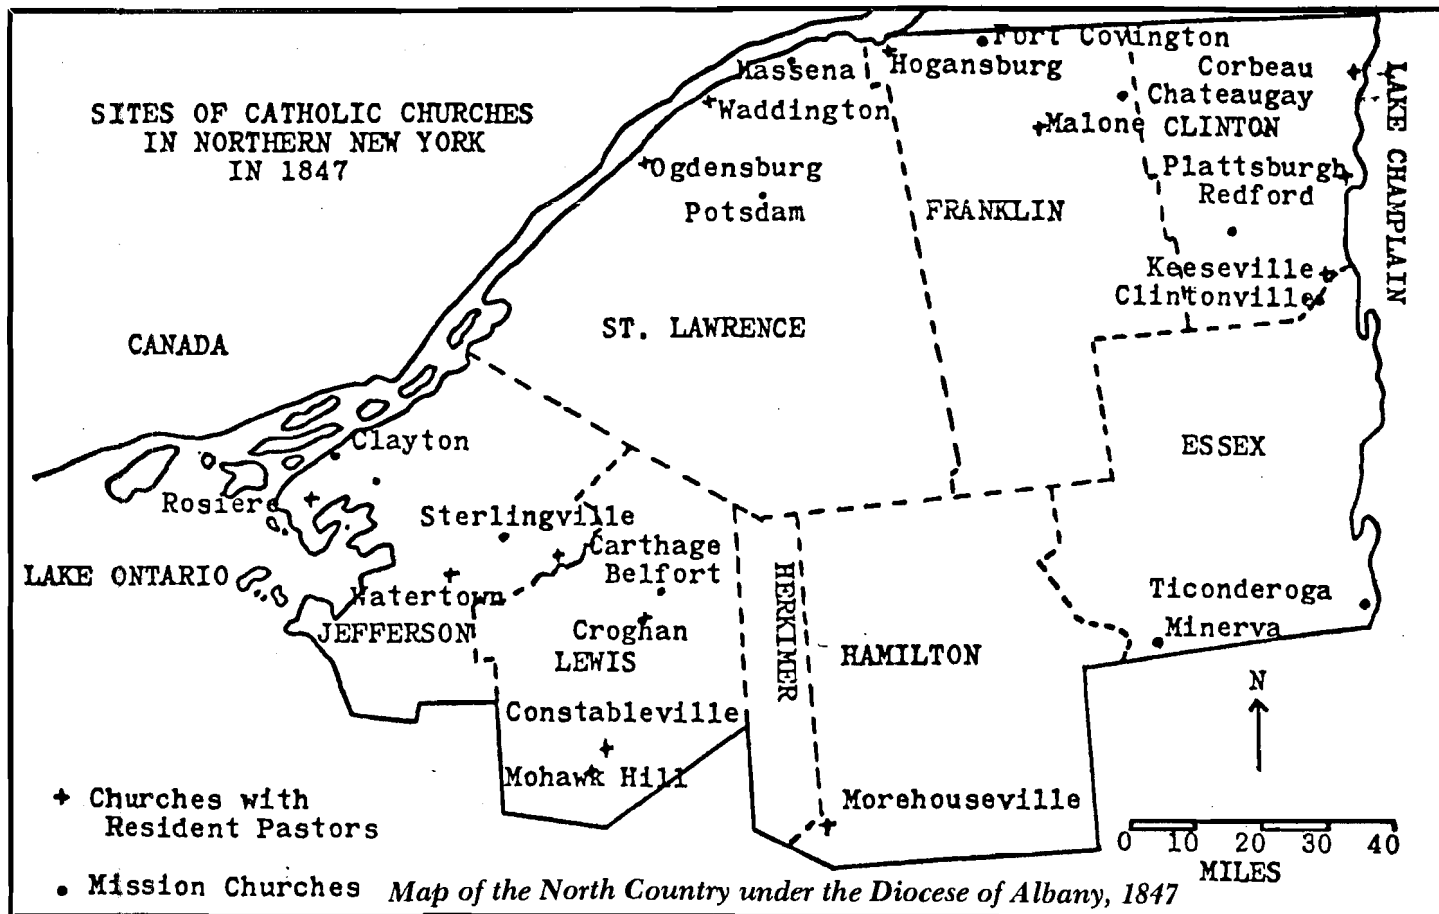

William Carroll and his assistant, Father Driscoll.

1866 brought Rev. John McDonald. He was born in Ireland in 1841, ordained 23 December 1865, after studying at Troy. He served in Keeseville until 1870 and also served at Redwood and Potsdam. He died 14 February 1879. Two years after Rev. John McDonald arrived, in 1868, AuSable Forks became an independent parish including Black Brook. As new parishes grew, the arduous mission duties of the pastors at Keeseville were lessened. In 1871 Father Tobias Glenn, reportedly a native born priest of the diocese, became pastor and served until his transfer to Watertown in 1880. Rev. Tobias Moses Glenn, born 14 February 1841, was ordained 19 December 1868 at Troy, N.Y. He departed this life 1 June 1907 at age 66 at Watertown, N.Y.

He was followed by Rev. John Conlon who died during his first year in the parish. A tablet at the Sacred Heart altar of the Immaculate Conception Church marks his grave.

1872 brought the newly formed Diocese of Ogdensburg which covered all areas north of the Albany Diocese.

From about 1881, a square tower, surmounted by an open belfray and lofty spire tipped with a gilded cross, has projected out from the facade. The new bell was purchased by Rev. Peter J. Devlin and was rung for the first time on Christmas Eve 1881. The bell was purchased from the Jones and Co. firm of Troy, N.Y. at a price of $550 and weighs, including mountings, 2400 pounds. An elaborate Ceremony of the Blessing of the Bell was held. This makes three stages of the Church's construction - original building, an enlargement, and the belfry-steeple. No doubt, in the period of the enlargement, the vaulted ceiling was made. Years later, a flat ceiling was installed, perhaps to satisfy a heating problem.

From 1881 to 1889 Rev. Peter James Devlin served as pastor. He was born in Tyrone Co., Cappagh, Ireland, of Peter Devlin and Catherine McNulty, on 21 January 1856. He took his studies at St. Joseph's Seminary, Troy, NY, and was ordained 20 December 1879. Rev. Devlin departed this life 19 April 1915, age 59, at Watertown, N.Y.

In 1885 during Father Devlin's pastorate, The Church of the Immaculate Conception reached 50 years of existence. Father Smith writes in his History of the pastor and parish at this time: "His work there is the ordinary routine work of an Adirondack priest, its toughest feature being the long rides on the mountain roads, which must be taken winter and summer, and are certain to wear out the toughest constitution. His parish contains about two hundred families, all Irish or of Irish descent, a good simple people, comfortably provided with a share of the world's goods, and proud of their fifty years of Catholic history."

It was during Father Devlin's time that a ladies group was first mentioned. A couple of articles taken from the Essex County Republican follow—

May 1881 - In connection with the grand celebration of the 4th in this Village, the ladies of the Irish Catholic Church will give a Fair and Festival at Association Hall. Meals will be furnished at all hours of the day. Ice cream to cool the tongue, and lemonade to quench the thirst, will be furnished in abundance and all are invited to step in and be convinced that 'you pays your money, you takes your choice'. -

-Sept. 8, 1881 The Festival held by the ladies of the "Catholic Sewing Society" at Mr. LaFleur's beautiful garden and promenade last Thursday evening was a grand success. A marvelous success considering that the announcement preceding the picnic was made but a few days before. What active zeal and ready labor then, must have been spent by those good ladies, whose motive was to procure proper and fit linen and ornaments for the altar of the Church. But, not only these must be congratulated, but the good and generous people of Keeseville, of all classes and opinions, who by their happy presence and good will and cheer, made the Festival a success. We notice year by year how a strong social feeling is growing up among Americans, that binds us all together. It is certainly a land of liberty, but it is a thrice blessed land when its' children, by smiles and good will, help each others good cause and motive. Compliments are always poured out upon our creditable band and in this instance they must be praised for the incentive that made them march as one to enhance the joy and success of the occasion and many thanks for their kindness that made them determined, so grand a procession to the grounds. The grounds were brilliantly illuminated and the fine singing lent inspiration to the evening. The Festival was a success, and to Father Devlin, this must be a consoling guarantee as to the good will and zeal of the inhabitants of Keeseville. As a direct result of the success of the Festival, the Sewing Society presented a beautiful set of gold vestments and a gold Cope to the Church through the pastor, Father Devlin.

Another article taken from the ESSEX COUNTY REPUBLICAN:

- 6 March 1884 The many friends of Mrs. T. Adgate will regret to learn she has resigned her position as organist in the Church of the Immaculate Conception. For the last ten years Mrs. Adgate has held the position, and most faithfully and unselfishly performed her labor, receiving no compensation but the unspoken thanks of many who recognized how cheerfully she responded to their calls. In the history of a congregation many changes take place in a decade. And as organist she has taken part in the joys and sorrows of many; playing the wedding march for many a happy bride, and singing the "Libera" for many a dear friend as they were carried to their last resting place. She will be especially missed in the choir, where her voice, strong and musical, was a service of pleasure to her hearers. Those who have heard her sing "Tantum Ergo" and "Ave Maria" cannot but regret that they are to be deprived of that pleasure in the future. While we wish her successor every success in her new position, Mrs. Adgate has won and carries with her, the best wishes of many friends.

Rev. Thomas P. Fitzgerald, born of Peter Fitzgerald and Mary Hartigan, in Toronto on 23 Aug. 1856, was ordained in the Cathedral at Ogdensburg on 1 August 1886. Fr. Fitzgerald was called from this life on 9 September 1914 at the age of 58 years at Massena Springs. Burial was at Oswego. The dignity of his priestly life, the earnestness of his zeal in his church duties, his kindly voice and smile left lasting influences in the parish.

Following Fr. Fitzgerald, Rev. Michael F. Ambrose became pastor from 1899 to 1905. He was born 16 June 1856 of Robert Ambrose and Bridget Ryan of Tunton, Mass. He took his studies at Troy N.Y. and was ordained by Bishop Wadhams in Ogdensburg on 5 July 1885. After a long life Fr. Ambrose died at age 78 on 27 April 1934. During his pastorate Clintonville mission became a separate parish. Also, a new rectory was acquired and remodeled. The former rectory was located on upper Front Street and in 1971 was the property of Carl and Ora Banker. The new rectory was located on Chesterfield Street across from the church parking lot. It was purchased from Andrew G. & Adele J. Fletcher on 16 January 1899.

Rectory of The Church of The Immaculate Conception (Chesterfield Street)

From 1905 to 1909 the parish was administered to, in turn, by Rev. John J. Dean, Rev. Bernard J. McLaughlin and Rev. Jeremiah C. Manning.

In Father McLaughlin's short pastorate of one year, he worked strenuously in raising funds by which the neglected cemetery was improved and the church redecorated. It was probably during these improvements that the conventional stained-glass windows with tympanum emblems were added, as some accounts say they were added about 1900. Many of the windows were given as memorials of deceased members of families, as well as, some being gifts of current families. Today one can read the names of the donors of the windows and statuary as well.

The electric pipe organ, the first of its kind in Keeseville, was installed about 1915. Reportedly, the company doing the installation sent a talented musician to give a concert on the new organ. Sometime in the late 1920's, new Stations of the Cross were hung, replacing those that were acquired when the church was improved.

The Rev. Jeremiah C. Manning was born in Keene, N.Y., on 1 June 1855 son of Michael Manning and Margaret Corey. He received his studies at both Toronto and Montreal, and was ordained a priest on 10 August 1884 by Bishop Wadhams at Ogdensburg. Father Manning died in Keeseville on 23 January 1909 at the age of 44 years. Following the death of Father Manning, Bishop Gabriels appointed Rev. Daniel F. O'Reilly pastor. Father O'Reilly remained in the parish until Jan. 1931.

Rev. Daniel F. O'Reilly was born 1 July 1873 in Templeno Parish, Kenmore, County Kerry, Ireland, of Daniel O'Reilly and Ellen Kissane. He was ordained at Montreal on 22 December 1900. He departed this life 4 October 1946 at age 73.

During Father O'Reilly's stay, many improvements were made. Also more land was purchased to enlarge the cemetery. The old brick school house adjoining the church was acquired and used as a garage and tool house. The Mark Pasho house, several lots down Spring Street, was also acquired and used as the sexton's house for several years.

In 1909, through the generosity of M/M Edward Rowan, their family, and friends and citizens of Port Kent, the lovely cobble stone chapel of The Sacred Heart was built. Here Mass was said each Sunday during the summer.

Rev. John J. Bent succeeded Father O'Reilly in 1931 through 1939. Father Bent was born 21 April 1876 in Wexford Co., Ireland of Peter Bent and Bridget Murphy. He departed this life 2 March 1949 at the age of 73 years and is buried in Ogdensburg, N.Y.

During his time the sexton's house, near the lower cemetery gateway and the brick school house, which stood at the main gateway and badly damaged by fire in the 30's, was torn down. Much of the brick from the school house was used to build the two-car garage adjoining the rectory on Chesterfield Street.

Father Bent continued the work of Father O'Reilly. A new furnace was contracted from Quinn & Clifford of the village and was complete with radiators along the side walls, eliminating the huge register in the floor in the center of the church. A new hardwood floor was laid and new oak pews installed. The altar rail was remade, using much of the oak material as the pews. The opening in the center of the rail was closed by a gold chain from which hung a Maltese Cross. The interior of the church was painted by the Valentino family of New York City. Both walls behind the Blessed Virgin and the Sacred Heart altars were decoratively painted by a donation from the Dominic Corbo family. All was in order and ready for the 100th Anniversary celebration on 24 July 1935. Gene Santor Jr. remembers how happy and pleased Father Bent was with his flock and their untiring work to get this project in order. He was pleased and grateful to all in his congregation.

THE CELEBRATION -

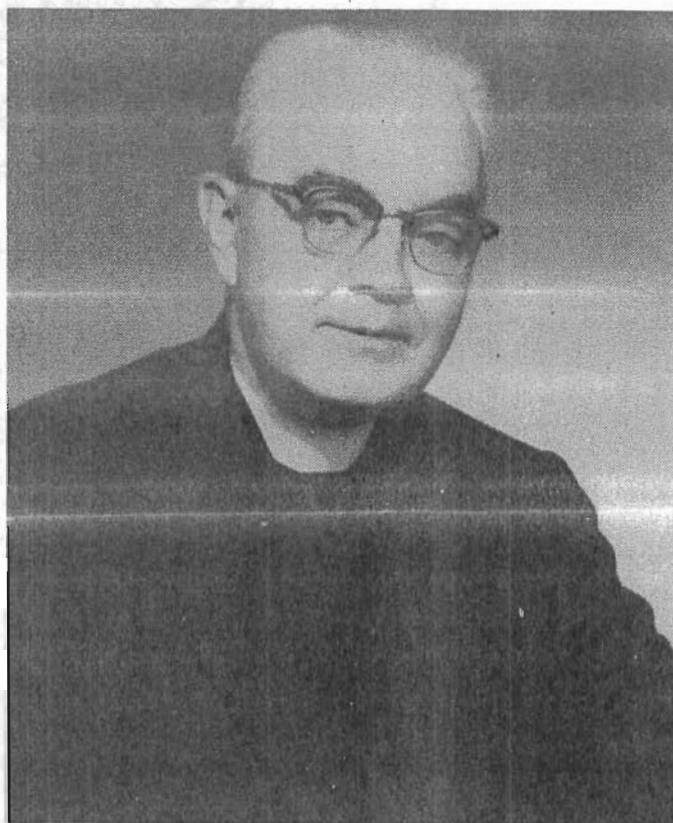

- Began with an eight o'clock open-air Mass said on an altar erected on the grave of Caroline Sheridan, reportedly the first burial in the cemetery. The original Mass missal of the Church was used. Father John W. Dwyer, born in the parish, was the celebrant of the open-air Mass. The sub-deacons were Father Michael English and Father W. H. Brennan. Father English was a summer resident of the parish and Father Brennan was pastor of St. Philip's Church, Willsboro which in earlier days was a mission of Keeseville. At the close of the Mass, a firing squad from Plattsburgh Post fired a volley and a bugler sounded Taps. This tribute, arranged by the Keeseville American Legion Post was to the dead of four American Wars buried in the Cemetery.

An indoor Mass at 10:00 a.m. was celebrated by Rev. J.J. Bent in a two-fold honor of the 100th Anniversary of the erection of the church building and that of his own 25th Anniversary of his Ordination. A new, red Moraco Altar Missal was used for this occasion, being presented by Pierce McAloon, writer of the CHURCH OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION - IT'S FIRST 100 YEARS, 1835-1935. A speaker was the Honorable T. F. Conway, Lt. Gov. of New York State and a native of the parish. Music for both Masses, was sung by the Church choir under the direction of Peter Riani and Mary A. McMahon organist. Chief soloists were Clarence McGuire, Arch Lacy, Frank McGuire, Mrs. Hubert Toomey, Martin Mannix, Carroll Davey and Mrs. Joseph McGee. In addition, a luncheon was held at the Hotel AuSable Chasm, at which a message from Pres. Franklin D. Roosevelt was read; and a Civic Ceremony, conducted by Rev. McKay, at the Congregational Church, were among the days activities.

In 1936 the Michael Coughlin family bought the present iron fence and installed the fence and the stone gateways into the cemetery. Another pride and joy of Father Bent's was the beautification of the grounds around the church, rectory and in the cemetery. Gene said Father Bent was quite eager to don some old clothes and work along side his men. Yet, he had time for his altar boys, all twelve. "My twelve apostles" he used to call us', Gene said. He formed a baseball team and organized games to be played with other altar boys from neighboring churches.

Father Bent was transferred to St. Mary's, Canton, NY and was succeeded by Rev. Francis C. A. Cornish. Father Cornish was born in El Paso, Texas on 5 March 1893 of Charles and Margaret Cornish. He was ordained 8 September 1918 at Ogdensburg, N.Y. and was assigned to The Church of the Immaculate Conception in Keeseville from 15 November 1938 to December 1958. He departed this life 15 June 1960 at Mexico City, Mexico.

Father Cornish

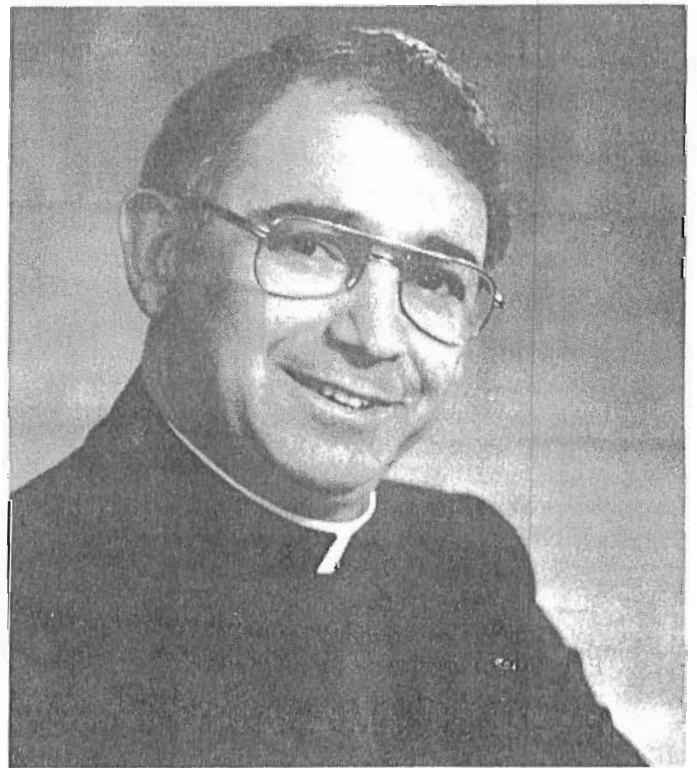

Father Cornish brought with him new ideas for his flock. He instituted the Eucharistic Holy Hour - God present on the Altar a full hour each Sunday evening of the year. He formed the first all-day Pilgrimage for the families of The Immaculate Conception, to various churches and shrines in and around the Montreal proper. The day would begin with Mass at Brother Andre's Shrine, St. Joseph's Oratory, Mount Royal. A break at noon, for a picnic lunch at the Pavillion and to get acquainted, was suggested. As the years progressed, so did this idea of a pilgrimage. It spread community wide, and then area wide. It was through Father Cornish's association with Brother Andre, now Blessed Andre, that the weekly Holy Hour and pilgrimages were brought to this parish. Blessed Andre also came to this parish several times and was known to have visited several homes, some of which were critically ill or suffering parishioners.

Father Cornish installed the ladies of the parish in the Altar and Rosary Society and the men in the Holy Name Society. He was a strong supporter and promoter of the Knights of Columbus Organization in Keeseville and became its first chaplain. For the students of McAulley Academy or Immaculate Conception School, Father Cornish got them all involved in the annual May Crowning. Many of us can remember taking part in the elaborate affair which drew large crowds. Fr. Cornish, with the capable assistance of the Sisters of Mercy, organized and marched the students from all eight grades up the Church to practice. On the night of the Crowning, the church was lavishly decorated with fresh flowers, awaiting the procession of students dressed as various orders of religious sisters, brothers, priests and bishops. They were followed by the person chosen to crown the statue of Mary, and then the altar servers and Father and visiting priests. The person chosen to crown Mary was dressed in a long white dress and veil and was preceded down the aisle by a crown bearer and several flower girls, also dressed in long white dresses and veils. The students that were dressed as various religious orders often made their own habits for the occasion. There was appropriate music and the service followed.

It was during Father's twenty active years at Immaculate Conception that two of his altar servers, John Downs and Peter Riani, were ordained priests. Each celebrated his first Mass in this Church. One young lady from the parish, Martha Lacy, took the vows of a Sister of Mercy.

In 1945 renovations once again took place. The interior walls were painted a smooth cream with the ceiling in white. The sanctuary was finished in heavenly pink with the woodwork finished in dark oak. Indirect lighting was installed. Two new side altars were installed. One a gift in memory of the late Dr. Victor Krakes on the Sacred Heart side and the other on the Blessed Virgin side was a gift of Dr. & Mrs. J. Donald Holt. The main altar had been the main feature of the interior renovations. The Stations of the Cross were refinished at that time as well and the text over the sanctuary arch was done in gold lettering.

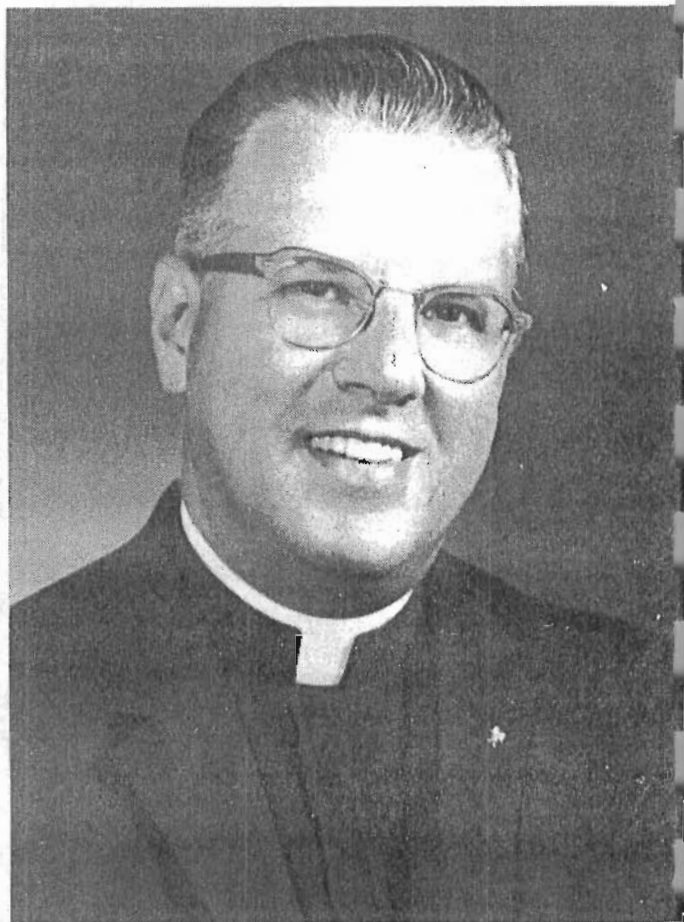

The Church of the Immaculate Conception some times was referred to as the "Church of Flowers." This came from Father Cornish's love of fresh flowers which were donated to decorate the altars by several parishioners who grew flowers.

New concrete porches and steps were installed at the outside entrances to the sacristy and new heavy doors were placed at these entrances. The mechanism of the pipe organ was rebuilt. The work was completed without any debt and is a credit to the generosity of the parishioners who have, with great pride, contributed to the extensive work.

Father Keefe

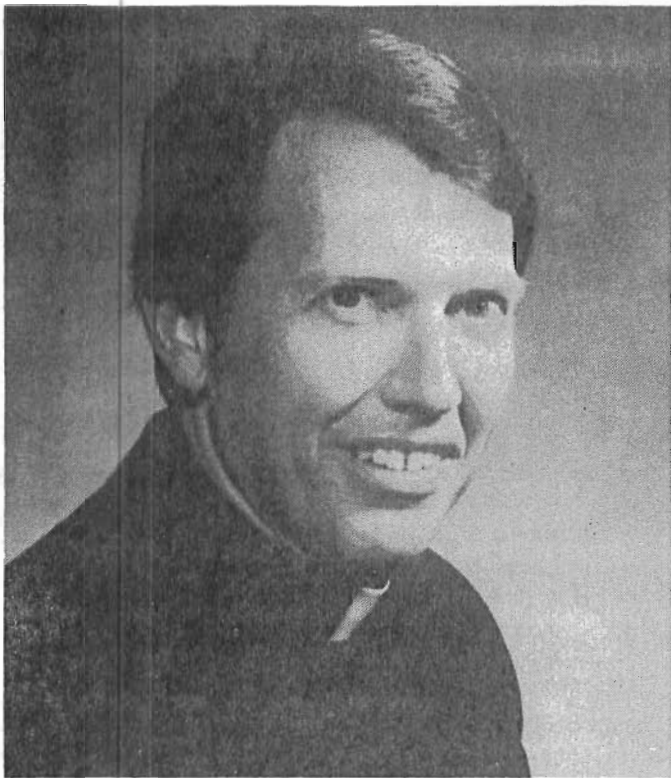

Rev. Daniel Keefe was assistant and remained till the arrival of Rev. John F. Wiley. Father Wiley succeeded Father Cornish, coming first as administrator on 29 October 1958, and then was made pastor in June of 1960. Father Wiley was born 6 July 1920 at Cape Vincent, N.Y. of Leonard A. Wiley and Emily Blume. He was ordained 17 March 1945 at Ogdensburg, N.Y. and departed this life 26 February 1984 during his pastorate at Norwood, N.Y.

Father Wiley

It was during Father Wiley's time here that the Immaculate Conception School and St. John's parochial schools merged and became known as Our Lady of Grace Academy. We mention the Immaculate Conception School or "Irish Convent", as it was commonly called, only briefly as its' history has been written separately under the title HISTORY OF MCAULEY ACADEMY-ST. STANISLAUS ACADEMY-OUR LADY OF GRACE SCHOOL by Ida Davy from this parish.

During the mid 60's changes came about in the Church Liturgy. The universal language of Latin changed to English. With the English Liturgy came the participation of the congregation. Also during Father Wiley's time, about 1969-70 the celestial pink ceiling and walls gave way to pale blue walls and a midnight blue ceiling over the high altar in the sanctuary. Decorators from New York City were hired, and the main and two side altars were changed from all white to antique white, antiquing being very popular at that time. New carpeting was installed in the sanctuary. In 1966 the final payment for the parish's share of OLGA was made. The same year the pipe organ was rebuilt. In 1968 new lights were installed and the sacristy entrances were redone. In 1970 the Parish Council was formed and a light at the Spring Street entrance was installed. Then, in August of 1971, Father Wiley was transferred to Norwood, N.Y.

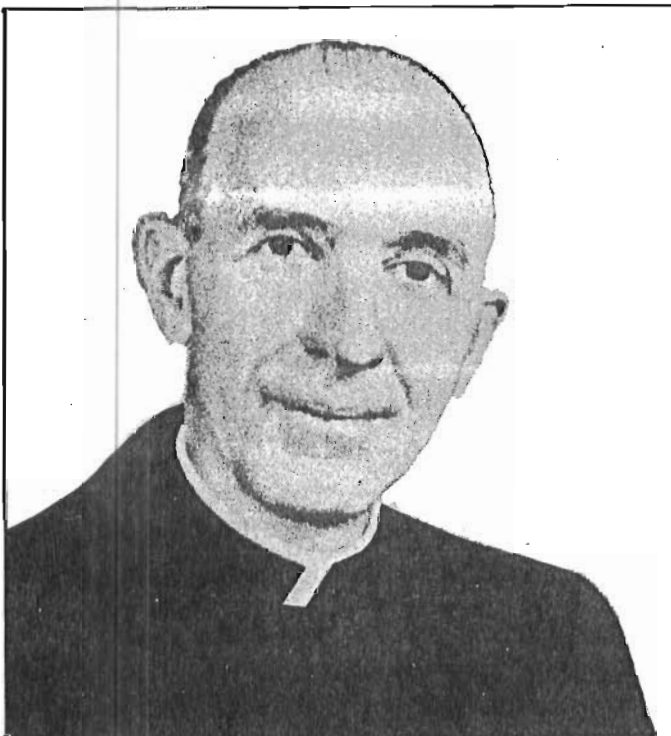

Father Pease

Rev. Anthony Pease came as administrator from August of 1971 til January of 1972, when Rev. Harold P. McCabe became pastor of the church of the Immaculate Conception.

Father Desnoyers

Rev. Eugene T. Desnoyers replaced Fr. McCabe in May 1974. Father Desnoyers was born in Malone, N.Y. on 8 October 1918 of Melnin and Exina (Menard) Desnoyers. He was ordained 6 June 1948 at Notre Dame, Malone, N.Y. It was during Father Desnoyers time that another change in the Liturgy was instituted at Immaculate Conception: A smaller, table-altar was installed facing the congregation.

Father McCabe

Father McCabe was born 9 October 1910 in Port Henry, N.Y. He was ordained on 6 June 1936 at Ogdensburg, N.Y. and died at Port Henry on 27 July 1976.

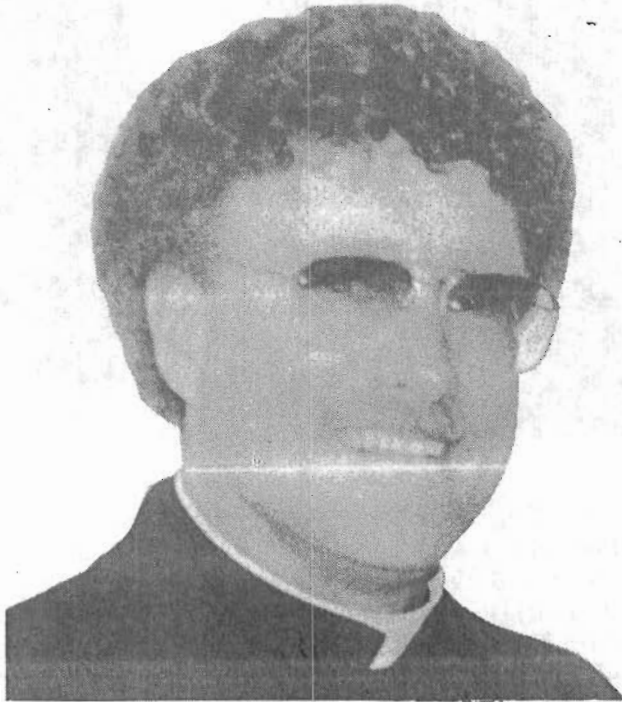

Father Mundy

Father Desnoyers left Keeseville June of 1979. Rev. Patrick Mundy replaced Father Desnoyers as administrator, ministering to the needs of the parish until June of 1980, when a Co-operative Pastorate Program was initiated in Keeseville.

Thus began a new era in the parish of The Immaculate Conception. From a temporary administrator of 1979-80, we have moved into a new and innovated aspect of church ministry. As a result of the shortage of priests and a more economically efficient outlook the Catholic Community of Keeseville developed. Rev. Gerald A. Cerank became the new pastor of the church on 25 June 1980.

Father Cerank

Father Hunt

Along with Father Cerank, Rev. John M. Hunt became the associate pastor (now known as "the parochial vicar") of Immaculate Conception. So, in this new set up, the parish was not dissolved or "swallowed up" but instead again had the service of two priests. Fr. Hunt became the pastor of St. John the Baptist Church, with Father Cerank as his parochial vicar, thus establishing one of the first co-operative pastorates of the U.S.A. Immaculate Conception has the honor and distinction of setting the pace for what will probably be a long line of co-operate pastorates. From the economical stand point came the consolidation of the two living quarters. The Immaculate Conception rectory was sold and the former St. John's rectory became the Rectory to serve the Catholic Community of Keeseville. The Rectory was upgraded to more efficiently handle the joint operation of the parishes. This became true also for the former OLGA building which took on a new peaked roof, and insulation of the windows to make the operation of the building as the Parish Center economically sound. The building was used as a parochial school until June of 1980, at which time it was necessary to cease operating a school.

The two new priests have spent a lot of time developing and upgrading liturgy and liturgical space, as well as care to the sick, and concern for the youth of the parish. In the years 1980-85, two new full time positions were established to concentrate on Religious Education and Music-Liturgical Ministries. Special efforts have been made by the priests to seek out converts as a several month program of the Catechumate called R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) was established.

Involvements of more lay people in the parish was also a big priority, not only in Parish Council, Finance Council, Parish Council Committees, but also in the liturgy with the establishing of Ministers of Holy Communion, and recruiting new lectors and altar servers. A great deal of time has been spent on the spiritual and educational life of the parish.

But along with those came some needed material developments. The old bell was electrified to ring out the Angelus three times daily as well as a bell before Mass. The electric tone sounds like the actual manual pulling of the bell. A plaque of donors to this project can be seen in the church. Special protective and insulative windows were added to the stained glass windows. Heat circulating fans were installed along with a timed thermostat. Even with the church being used daily, there has been considerable savings in fuel. Also, a cemetery vault was built to match the church building. Other changes, brought about by keeping in line with modern mandates for public buildings, were the installation of new ramps and handicap access to the church.

In 1985, the year of the 150th Anniversary, the church building under went some restoration and renovations. The Church's interior was repainted, new lighting, new blue carpeting throughout, and the sanctuary was enlarged and renovated to accommodate the "new" liturgy. The new renovation had the distinct object of retaining the old but adapting to the new. The old white altar of sacrifice is the focal point of the whole church sanctuary, while the old back altar provides a pleasant backdrop. The final result gained much praise from parishioners and visitors alike.
