St. Joseph Church Cohoes, New York Founded 1867

The first plans for the church of St. Joseph dates back to 1867 when plans were conceived after a mass at St. Bernard's in Cohoes. French Catholics numbered approximately 300 then and after voicing a desire for a French parish, Bishop Pinsonneault urged them to seek approval for a French church. Permission was granted on June 18, 1868. A year later St. Joseph's church was completed having been spearheaded by Father Joseph Saugon, the first pastor assigned to St. Joseph. Unfortunately, because of Fr. Saugon's failing health, the dedication Mass was performed by Father Thomas Keveny of St. Bernard's. Father Saugon passed away without ever having celebrated a mass in the church he struggled and labored to erect.

After Father Saugon's demise, Father Joseph Octave LaSalle was transferred from Champlain, NY and assigned as the second pastor of St. Joseph. Father LaSalle, besides attending to the spiritual needs of this parish, was involved in the relentless labor that St. Joseph's Church direly required. The church was considered structurally unsafe. In an effort to save the church and keep it safe Father LaSalle had the steeple removed because it was threatening to crush the remaining of the church. This was not the solution - in 1873 it was decided the whole church structure required demolishing and they would build anew.

Work began in 1874 and this church stands today. At age 45, Father LaSalle passed away before he could see the fruits of his labor. Msgr. Louis Marcell Dugas, a pastor from Montreal was named as the third pastor of St. Joseph and the one to complete what his two predecessors had started.

In 1880, 100 skilled weavers arrived in Cohoes from Lorraine, France to work in the silk mills. With the addition of the 100 new families, Msgr. Dugas solicited the aid of the Sisters of Ste-Anne of Lachine, Canada to come to Cohoes and teach the youth of the parish. When the basement of the church proved to be unfit for over-crowded classrooms and acknowledging the very sad physical structure of things, Msgr. Dugas and his parishioners decided to erect a school in spite of the extreme heavy debts already incurred.

In 1881 ground was broken for the newest addition to St. Joseph parish - the new school building which would also serve as a convent for the Sisters. The school opened for the fall semester in 1882. By 1883 it became apparent that this building could not accommodate all the students and the Sisters. A Commercial Academy directed by the Clerics of St. Viator was established, leaving the original school structure to serve only as a convent for the Sisters. In 1901, the addition of a gymnasium completed the work required to achieve the parishioners' vision of what their parish was to be. Now the parish felt it could breathe easily. This sense of relief was short lived.

Tragedy struck St. Joseph's on December 30, 1901. A massive fire broke out at 8:45 in the evening engulfing the college but then spread to the school and convent as well. All three buildings were completely destroyed. Neither Msgr. Dugas nor the parishioners despaired. In 1904 a new school was operational for the fall semester and the convent was prepared to welcome back the Sisters of Ste. Anne once again. Among many of Msgr. Dugas' other accomplishments was the purchase of property and the establish-ment of St. Joseph's Cemetery located on Middletown Road in Waterford. Msgr. Dugas ended his thirty-five year stay at St. Joseph's when he resigned in 1915 due to failing health.

He was succeeded by Father Louis Lavigne who was instrumental in paving the way for a more closely unified assembly of the parish buildings. This relocation of outer buildings actually gave way to and brought about St. Joseph's Place and the use of the intended Main Entrance. Father Lavigne went on to beautify the grounds with landscaping, reno-vating the church interior, renewing the walls in both the school and the convent and in modernizing the heating, plumbing and electrical systems. Sadly, in July 1946, Father Lavigne passed away.

Father Celas A. Robitaille, then assistant at St. Joseph's for 20 years was named Administrator until Father Joseph Pelletier was appointed the fifth pastor in November 1946. Unfortunately, he went to his eternal rest in August of 1951. Father Pelletier was succeeded by Father Leo H. Paradis, who was then assistant at St. Joseph's. Although never appointed pastor of St. Joseph's, Father Paradis served the parish for twenty years from 1936 through 1956.

The sixth pastor at St. Joseph was the Very Rev. Celas A. Robitaille appointed in September 1951, having been in Cohoes nearly all of his priestly life. He oversaw yet another renovation to the Church, repairs to the rectory, convent and school. He then turned to the cemetery and opened additional sections, added new roads and the Calvary renovation. His beautification of the parish did not end there. In 1966, he saw the interior of the church through yet another renovation as well as adding a new organ console. Father Celas retired in June of 1970 but continued to say daily Mass at St. Joseph's until his death on May 21, 1977.

On August 1, 1970, Bishop Broderick, D.D. appointed Rev. Joseph S. Robitaille as the seventh pastor. Fr. Joe, as he was called by the parishioners, made numerous needed and modern improvements to the parish buildings as well as to the cemetery. In the early 1970s as the Catholic School System began merging or consolidating schools, Fr. Joe turned St. Joseph's school into the CCD Office and classrooms for the weekly teaching of Religious Education classes for all the downtown Cohoes students attending public school. Ultimately, the school and convent buildings had to be demolished due to the high cost of repairs. Since the 1980s, Father Robitaille installed a burglar alarm system to monitor the church and the rectory as well as a fire alarm system that are both updated yearly.

Father Robitaille kept the completely renovated 24 room rectory updated by having two rooms repainted and wall papered yearly. The parish house which is used as a home for the priests is also an office for the parish staff. It is always kept in excellent condition. Besides purchasing the original farm house situated near the Superintendent's home at the cemetery, the parish expanded its land ownership and Father Joe was able to open two new additional sections in the cemetery.

In 1992, the new parish hall was opened after many parishioners volunteered their services over a two year period. The Ste. Anne Society, in the true spirit of the society, donated all the furnishings the hall required to make the dream complete.

And so it was in 1992 that St. Joseph's celebrated the church's 125th Anniversary having been born from humble beginnings and endured many hardships throughout its history. Father Robitaille passed away in January of 2002 with his good friend, Father Thomas Kelly at his side.

In the same year, the Bishop appointed Lorraine DeCuyper as the Parish Life Director. She is the 1st non-religious woman in the 140 years of existence appointed as the director of the Parish. In 2003 the Parish hired the 1st male secretary, George Beaulac.

The founders of this parish have provided the parishioners a home in which to thank God for all his many blessings bestowed upon them and their ancestors.

FROM THE PUBLISHER

Around 1981, Richard Fortin and the late Jean Pellerin, Past Presidents of ACGS, approached Fr. Joseph Robitaille, the pastor of St. Joseph's in Cohoes, NY about copying his church records. It did not come to fruit at that time. In November 1996 David Bonitatibus and his mother, Sioban Dusseault Bonitatibus were welcomed by Fr. Robitaille, then pastor for 27 years. In late November 1996 the project of copying 35 registers was begun by David and his mother. Father Robitaille passed away in January 2002. In the same year, Lorraine DeCuyper was appointed Parish Life Director. In 2003, George Bealac became Parish Secretary.

To all of them our grateful appreciation for allowing us to copy registers and the updates.

THIS BOOK AND ITS CONTENTS

This répertoire contains about 14,308 baptisms that took place at St. Joseph, Cohoes, NY from 17 September 1868 to August 2005. Our policy when producing baptismal répertoires is to incorporate as much information as possible. In many instances, babies had as many as four given names. If a lack of space was a factor, we chose to put an asterisk (*) after the second or third given name and continue the names in the note field. Parents are listed in parentheses. The father's surname is not repeated unless it is different from the person being baptized. If there is no father listed, which may indicate illegitimacy, the record is omitted. We strive to never divulge an illegitimate person's identity.

Sponsors are the godparents. If there is a relationship between the godparents and the baptized person indicated in the record, we include the additional information in our extracts. When the baptized person marries anywhere in the world in the Catholic Church, his or her baptismal parish is notified and the baptismal record is noted. This marital information is also extracted at the time we enter the baptism. In these records, in the field marked ex loco did the Reverend mean residence of the parents or where they came from? We put 'from' which could be either of the above
