Our Lady of Lourdes Schroon Lake, New York

Among the first Catholics to settle in the Schroon Lake area in 1850 were Edward and Peter Clark, Patrick and John Sheehy, Patrick McCarthy, W. Gaffney, and John Brown. In 1863 the first Catholic Cemetery was formed. Margaret Crowley McCarthy was the first person to be buried there on May 18, 1863.

In 1867, Schroon Lake became a mission of St Joseph's of Olmstedville, NY and became Our Lady of Lourdes. It remained a mission of Olmstedville for 15 years. It wasn't until the winter of 1879 that Father Francis-Xavier Pelletier visited the missions of Schroon Lake and North Hudson where he found 24 Catholic families.

In January of 1882, Our Lady of Lourdes became a mission of St Patrick's in Port Henry, NY. Father John O'Rourke was then pastor of St Patrick's and had charge of the missions of Crown Point, North Hudson, Schroon Lake and Hammondville.

In April of 1882, Lansford Whitney deeded land to Our Lady of Lourdes next to the Catholic cemetery where a church was to be built. In January of 1883 the church was completed beside the Catholic cemetery on Hoffman Road.

For the years between 1883 and 1914, Schroon Lake shared a pastor with the above towns. After 30 years Our Lady of Lourdes received its own resident pastor who also served the North Hudson parish. Father Edward Tetrault became the first pastor.

In 1915 the parish bought property on Main Street and had the Hoffman Road church moved to that spot in 1917 where it still stands. In 1989 the parishes of St Joseph, Olmstedville and Our Lady of Lourdes once again shared a pastor.

Following are the pastors who served at Our Lady of Lourdes

St. Ann Parish Wells, New York

St. Ann's Parish was founded in 1880 by Bishop Edgar Wadhams and Fr. Edward Murphy. The parish began as a mission from St. Joseph Parish, Olmstedville. Baptismal records prior to this date remain in Olmstedville.

Due to the distance and winter weather, Mass was celebrated once a month from May through August. The priests would make the 72 mile round trip from Olmstedville by horse and buggy. The trip generally took two or more days, with the priests spending the night at Henry Girard's hotel in Griffin. Mass was said at the local schoolhouse prior to continuing to Wells. Family members, or a boarding schoolteacher, conducted religious instruction in the home to prepare children for first communion and confirmation.

Fr. Gallivan baptized Mary (King) Girard at the hotel in 1890.

The first resident pastor was Fr. Michael Gallivan, who oversaw construction of the first church building. The land for the church included the cemetery plot. After several years, the forestry industry collapsed, population dropped, and the parish reverted to a mission church, served by Olmstedville.

In 1911, St. Ann's parish and the surrounding areas of Lake Pleasant, Pisece and Speculator were placed under the care of the Franciscan Fathers of the Order Minor Conventuals.

The re-establishment of the parish came about as automobiles became available, making transportation easier and bringing more families to the area.

One of the first pastors after St. Ann's was re-established was Father John Murnane, renting Hiram Craig's house as a rectory.

After Lake Algonquin was created from damming the Sacandaga River at the lower end of Wells, the area became a popular summer resort. The present St. Ann's church was built in 1930 and dedicated in 1931 while Fr. Adlebert Debelt was pastor. The original church was sold to the Pilgrim Holiness Mission, now known as the United Wesleyan Church.

The founding families of the parish came from the towns of Wells, Hope, Pumpkin Hollow, West Hill, Gilmantown and Griffin, which required a two hour trip to cover the seven mile distance – each way. They included the Patrick Hanley family, the Parkers, Conways, Dr. and Mrs. McGann, the Coulombes from Hope, the Girards from Griffin and the Davisons from West Hill, including “Oliver Whitman's mother who walked four miles each way”.

Fr. Debelt also supervised the construction of the St. James Major church in Lake Pleasant in 1925. This parish was served as a mission of St. Ann's. Fr. Charles Neukirk celebrated Mass in Lake Pleasant until St. James Major parish was established in 1959.

The parish also provided weekly Mass to the boys at the CCC camps near Moffat Beach. Fr. Denis Gallagher and Felix Pelicke served as chaplains. Fr. Charles Neukirk also provided services to the camps.

The first Church Bazaar was organized by Fr. Raphael Huber about 1920.

The early priests of St. Ann's Church were:

Fr. Michael Gallivan	1890(?) - ?
Various priests from Raquette Lake	1911-14
Fr. Gregory Scheurmann - Rensselaer	1914-17
Fr. Henry Themeling - Raquette Lake	1917-20
Fr. Felician Fehlner - Raquette Lake	1917-20
Fr. Raphael Huber - Northville	1920-22

The resident priests, all Franciscan Fathers, of St. Ann's Church were:

Fr. Adelbert Debelt	1925-26
Fr. John Murnane	1926-29
Fr. Adelbert Debelt	1929-30
Fr. Hilary Hemmer	1930-34
Fr. Denis Gallagher	1934
Fr. Charles Neukirk	1934-48
Fr. Donald O'Meara	1948
Fr. Callistus Scheid	1948-54
Fr. Stephen Korthas	1954-57
Fr. Peter Geier or Gaier	1957-63
Fr. Alban Bartosch	1963-66
Fr. Gebhard Braungert	1966-69
Fr. Bartholomew Gaske	1969-74
Fr. Jude Schnieder	1974-82
Fr. Severin Dietrich	1978-82
Fr. Arnold Netzer	1983-85
Fr. Antone M. Kandrac	1986-88
Fr. Ralph White	1989-93

The resident priests, from the Diocese of Ogdensburg, of St. Ann's Church were:

Fr. Euclid Marier	1994-95
Fr. James Flattery	1996
Fr. Paul Kelly*	1997-2007
Fr. Shane M. Lynch	2008

*Thanks are given to Fr. Kelly, who gave permission for the transcription of the church records.

St. Joseph Olmstedville, New York

It was called the "Lone star" parish of the diocese. It consisted of the villages of: Olmstedville, Schroon Lake, Newcomb, Long Lake, Blue Mt. Lake, and Indian Lake strung along the rocky terrain of the southern Adirondacks. The parish was remote and rugged and was reachable by rail. In 1856, the nearest Catholic church had been Notre Dame des Victoires in Whitehall, NY. There is no record of a priest assigned to this parish before 1842. If an occasional missionary passed through, there is no record of it. There was a great need for religious services in this area.

Settled in the 1830s by Irishman such as McGuire, Kelly, Garvey, and O'Neil, the task of these men was to blaze the trail through the Adirondack wilderness and make homes for their families. In 1842 Edmund Butler wrote to the Bishop in Albany, NY requesting a priest be sent to say Mass for those lone families. The priests from St. Peter's in Troy NY were sent on a rotating basis to say Mass in the local families' homes.

In 1847 authorized by trustees, Edmund Butler and Thomas McGuire, people set about building a church on land given by Emilie Pilon, wife of Ferdinand LaRose in Irishtown. It was named St. Mary's and was dedicated by Bishop McClosky, who would become America's first Cardinal. The church still stands as a memorial to the zeal and living faith of the early settlers of the Adirondack Mountains.

As the area settlement grew, and many Catholic families moved into the area, it was evident that a church should be built in Olmstedville. In 1868 Edmund Butler donated land for a new Catholic Church named St. Joseph. Bishop Wadham, then Vicar of the Albany diocese, laid the cornerstone of this church on May 24, 1871. In 1872, Bishop Wadham, the first Bishop of the Diocese of Ogdensburg, dedicated the building. In 1989 St. Joseph's merged with Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Schroon Lake, NY.

St. Mary's Parish Indian Lake, New York

During the 1850s, Catholic settlers came to the Indian Lake area to work in the lumbering industry. John McGinn was one of the first Catholics to arrive. More Irish Catholics arrived, settling east of the village along the road to North Creek, which came to be known as Irishtown. French Canadians also settled in the region, east of Big Brook, known as Little Canada. Some Catholic families also lived south of the village, at Sabaël, along Indian Lake itself.

After 1870, the resident pastor of St. Joseph's, Olmstedville, made occasional visits over the poor roads to Indian Lake, 26 miles distant. Rev. J. A. Kelly visited Indian Lake and celebrated Mass at W. Durant's Camp Pine Knot on Indian Lake.

By 1879, there were 31 Catholic families living in the Indian Lake area. Rev. Francis X. Pelletier succeeded Rev. Kelly as pastor at St. Joseph Parish. That winter, he offered Mass at the home of John McGinn for these families. It is likely that the exact date was December 28, 1879, as baptismal records show that James Farrell, Marie Olive Savarie and Elias Beaudin were baptized on that date.

A First Communion service was held on June 30, 1880 in Indian Lake and again in 1881.

The catholic congregation of Indian Lake was incorporated as St. Gabriel's Parish on November 25, 1881, but was not filed until December 29, 1885. Rev. Edward Blanchard was pastor of St. Joseph's and provided services to the new St. Gabriel's Church.

Initial attempts to construct a church during 1883-84 was unsuccessful, and religious services were generally held in the home of John McGinn.

Rev. J. B. LeGrand, pastor of St. Joseph's from 1884-90, suffered from heart disease and was unable to travel to Indian Lake very often.

Records indicate that Rev. John F. Byrne, St. Joseph's pastor from 1890-1894, performed baptisms and marriages at Indian Lake in 1890.

In 1891, Rev. Michael Gallivan was appointed pastor in Wells, NY and given the mission of serving Indian Lake and Raquette Lake. He arranged for Rev. Henry Gabriels, second Bishop of Ogdensburg, to perform confirmations in Indian Lake on August 10, 1893.

Father Gallivan led the efforts to construct a church in Indian Lake and the decision was made to change the name of the parish to St. Mary's church. As a result, the parish was re-incorporated on August 21, 1894.

Construction of the church began in 1894 on land donated by Mary and Theoffield Depan. Construction was completed in 1896, but the deed was not recorded until 1898. The church as dedicated on July 24, 1898.

News items from the local paper, the Warrensburgh News, include:

High Mass was celebrated by Rev. DuFresne on Christmas morning 1896.

A week-long mission at St. Mary's was conducted in May 1899 by Rev. Henry Borgmann from Saratoga.

Court Indian Lake, Independent Order of Foresters, attended divine service at St. Mary's on June 18, 1899 with a sermon given by Rev. Frank O'Brien. Fr. Edward McSweeney arranged the occasion. The church was filled to overflowing.

On Tuesday, April 22, 1902, the funeral of John McGinn, a founding member of the parish, was conducted with Fr. Ward officiating.

Another mission was conducted in June 1912 by Fr. Conway, a Redemptionist priest from Saratoga, and the pastor, Rev. J. P. O'Rourke.

Masses at St. Mary's were celebrated on an irregular basis, usually one Sunday per month, through the 1800s and into the 1900s. Pastors from St. Joseph's church in Olmstedville served the parish until 1958.

From 1917 until 1958, Fr. Frederick C. Hatch, served St. Mary's mission regularly. During the winter months, he traveled by horse and sleigh every two weeks to provide religious services to the parish.

After World War II, an increasing number of summer visitors came to Indian Lake. The church could not accommodate the congregation, with the crowds standing on the sidewalk outside the church. Fr. Hatch would take the collection, emphasizing the need for donations to build a larger church.

On July 15, 1958, St. Mary's, Indian Lake, became as an independent parish with Rev. James M. Flattery as the first resident pastor. He resided with Judge and Mrs. James Curry, occupying two rooms and an office in their home for a year and a half.

Father Hatch, in the records of St. Joseph's, wrote: "St. Mary's mission, Indian Lake, N. Y., is made an independent parish. Transferred to the new pastor $61,900 for the new church and lot for the new church ($1,020) near the high school. This ends forty-one years of caring for the Mission at St. Mary's. Deo Gratias."

The ground-breaking for the new church took place on October 19, 1958. The first Mass was held in this church on Sunday, May 31, 1959 with the dedication on July 26, 1959. The original St. Mary's Church was razed in 1961.

Construction of a rectory began shortly after the church was completed, and Fr. Flattery moved in on December 20, 1959.

In 1980, the long-unused parish cemetery was surveyed and the maps updated to facilitate its use in the future.

The church records also contain an incorporation of St. Mary's Parish in Indian Lake, NY on March 25, 1863 by Edgar P. Wadhams, Bishop of Ogdenburg, Rev. Thomas E. Walsh, Vicar General, and Rev. Edward Blanchard, Pastor of St. Gabriel's Church, Indian Lake, NY. Selestin Savary and John Farrell were the lay trustees of the parish.

The resident pastors of St. Mary's Church have been:

Rev. James M. Flattery	1958-67
Rev. George A. Fontaine	1967-68
Rev. Leo A. Wiley	1968-72
Rev. Francis P. Devan	1972-81?

Note in the parish records that French-Canadian names were frequently changed and/or spelled phonetically. For example, Roy (Roi) was translated to King and LaFountain was changed to Spring or Springs.

FROM THE PUBLISHER

This book is a collection of records from six parishes in Northern New York. Because of their small sizes and limited amount of records, these parishes were combined into one book.

Copying the records is the most critical step in the process and requires many hours to complete because some of the early records are so fragile making it difficult to handle them. Copying of these records can be difficult due to poor quality. Consequently some of the material may be incomplete or missing. If the researcher thinks some of their information was missed, than you should consult the church.

We are grateful to all the volunteers who worked long, tedious hours to produce the repertoire you are holding. As you can see below, there are several phases of production that go into the making of a repertoire.

Photocopying Records: David L. Bonitatibus and Joseph D. Schmid.

THIS BOOK AND ITS CONTENTS

This répertoire contains 4,966 baptism records, 2, 732 marriage records and 1600 burial records that took place between 1867 and 2006.

Although we combined all events in this repertoire our standard policy as to content in each record remains the same.

For marriages, we duplicate our database, reverse the bride and groom's information putting the brides on the left side of the report, and then sort the entire database alphabetically. This puts surname groupings together of both the brides and the grooms of a particular surname. It is then quick to see siblings getting married in the same parish.

For baptisms we are careful not to divulge illegitimacies or adoptions. We include parents and godparents/sponsors and any familial information if presented in the record. If the marginal notes in a baptism indicate a subsequent marriage, we include that information in the person's baptismal record.

Burials are a little less rich in genealogical information in that these are usually the minimum facts – date, place of death and burial. Sometimes a spouse's name is given or in the case of an infant, the parents' names appear in the record.
