Noelville Turns Out to Celebrate 100th Birthday of Eloise Carriere

(1967)

NOELVILLE — A centennial project was realized here recently when Mrs. Eloise Carriere, a pioneer Noelville resident for 53 years, was feted by the parishioners at the occasion of her 100th anniversary. The Centennial celebration organized by her granddaughters was a parochial feast for Noelville residents who had always considered Mrs. Carriere as a relative to all, and she was familiarly called by everybody "Ma tante Laize."

The day's activities started with a solemn high mass at St. David Roman Catholic Church, which had been decorated for the occasion. Rev. Gerard Vachon officiated while Edna Mayer, as organist, accompanied the vocal soloists, Mrs. Yolande Bouffard and Mrs. Laura Bindy of Lasalle.

The centenarian, for this special occasion, wore a floor-length gold brocade gown, with metallic gold silk hat and matching evening purse. She also wore gold slippers, a gold necklace and pin and she wore a corage of pink roses.

She was escorted in church by her two daughters, Maria, Mrs. Josephat Cloutier of Montreal, and Mea, Mrs. Archie St. Amour of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Pearl Carriere, a daughter-in-law, and eight granddaughters from Noelville. Everyone of them wore floor-length peau de Charme gowns in a lovely assortment of pastel shades.

RECEPTION, BANQUET

An open reception and banquet was held at the Knights of Columbus hall where the grand old lady, installed in a comfortable armchair, greeted everyone with a familiar smile.

BMI NOELVILLE TURNS pt 2
Claude Mayer, her nephew was master of ceremonies. He gave a summary of the story of her life. On June 14, 1867, 100 years ago at Angers, Que., Eloise Carriere was born to the late Antoine Cousineau and Louise Dubien. She was the seventh child of a family of 15. Her school education at Angers was a short one, as she was needed at home to help her mother to bring up her younger brothers and sisters, but in the meantime, she learned sewing which served her well all her life.

On July, 1898, at the age of 31, she married Hormidas Carriere who died at Noelville in 1941. In 1903 the couple had moved to Sturgeon Falls and then to Noelville in May 1911. The house they built, one mile from Noelville village, is still there. They raised a family of five and still surviving are her two daughters and one son, Donai.

The early pioneer years were not easy ones, but Mrs. Carriere, was always courageous and charitable in every way and her life always seemed to be on the bright side. She was always devoted to her church. She is still a member of the Third Order of St. Francis, and the Ladies of Ste. Anne federation, of which she was the founder and president for many years.

Mrs. Carriere was highly reknown for the fine meals she used to prepare for picnics, bazaars and all parochial organizations.

Throughout her past years "Ma tante Laize" also gained the reputation as a prayer healer and many families in Noelville and the surrounding towns regarded her as the family doctor, day or night, when a member of the family was ill, they were taken to her, and with a prayer, and a special formula of her own, helped them, as there was no doctor available in the new settlement. She was also the midwife.

Among the many presentations of appreciation to Mrs. Carriere was a special blessing from the Pope, and from Bishop Alexander Carter. She was presented with a large bouquet of red roses by the Noelville Centennial Committee. The presentation was performed by Mrs. Armande Pitre.

Norman Fawcett, member of Parliament for Nickel Belt, presented her with a souvenir — framed manuscript, a large Centennial flag and a gold Centennial pin. On behalf of the municipality of Noelville, she was also presented with a spiritual bouquet by Mayor Joseph Chartrand who expressed sentiments of admiration and gratitude to the Centenarian. She was also presented by her granddaughters, with a reclining chair.

Besides her three children the Centenarian has 17 grandchildren, 31 great grandchildren a one great, great granddaughter.

Some 500 visitors attended the celebrations. Mrs. Eloise Carriere is the only surviving member of her own family.

MRS. CARRIERE WAS PRESENTED WITH A CITATION FROM POPE PAUL. IT WAS PRESENTED TO HER BY REV. GERARD A. VACHON, DURING A SPECIAL MASS, ATTENDED BY MORE THAN 500 PEOPLE IN NOELVILLE

Le Carnaval Noelville lives it up!

Noelville's annual winter carnival was another smashing success this year. The festivities ended Sunday night with the crowning of the queen and a dance. The strong man of the north (Delamare du Nord) was Julien Seguin of Noelville who won with cross-cutting, buck saw, axe and snowshoe. The trophy was donated by Dorans. The strong woman of the north was Mrs. Diane Poulin of Hamner.

There were many activities such as hockey games, indoor games, a ski-doo rally and lots of entertainment over the entire carnival. On Sunday there was a parade at noon and after the afternoon activities there was a supper.

The float prizes, went to Rod and Gun Club of Noelville, first; Filles d'Isabelle, second, Union Culturelle, third. The $500 prize went to Christian Carriere, Ottawa, and the $250 prize went to Denis Poitras, Noelville. All funds went to the arena.

Signed and sealed, Anne-Marie's letter is ready to be delivered. She posted it herself, while Noelville's postmaster, Herve Giroux, waited inside the wicket, ready to mark the envelope: "Noelville, Ont." The envelope then went on its way, probably the first in history to go from Canada's "Christmas Town" to the hamlet of Christmas, in Florida. Noelville youngsters hope it will not be the last.

LUDGER DESMARAIS
-une étoile du hockey-

Ludger Desmarais Returns From States

With the world's minor hockey league honors resting lightly upon his thatch of light hair, Ludger Desmarais, ex-Cub Wolf defenceman, breezed into Sudbury this morning and will spend a few days in re-acquainting himself with Sudbury and environs. Ludger was a member of the champion Springfield Indians who copped the world's minor league hockey title by defeating Loudon Panthers.

"The Flying Frenchman" looks fit after a strenuous season in which he had three ribs broken. This kept him out of the game for some time but when he returned it was to notch the counter which eliminated New Haven in a hard-fought series. Prospects for the Canadian-American league are still vague for next year, many of this year's clubs losing money. Springfield is reported as being the only one to come out ahead. From his showing this year, Ludger seems to be headed for higher company.
